Two missions

Public responsibility:

- Stay home
- No proximity
- No density

A blue-tinted photograph of three healthcare professionals running through a modern hospital hallway. The hallway has large windows on the right side, letting in natural light. The professionals, two women and one man, are wearing light blue scrubs and are captured in motion, running towards the camera. The overall mood is urgent and professional.

The front-line battle is our health care systems.

And our soldiers are our healthcare professionals.

NOW.

- Plan forward
 - Get ahead of the problem
 - “Don’t fight the last battle”
 - Get ready for the apex
 - Prepare stockpiles now
 - “It’s too late to prepare when the storm hits”
 - Follow science and data
