

Spiegel: Your SB 50 Living Room Over/Unders

For you perhaps, or for the casual fan, or for your guests, we offer further levels of couch enjoyment. The guest who gets the most of the following prop bets correct should win something...you decide what. At my sister's party, it will be a random assemblage of Score 670 swag, perhaps including private logo Chapstick. Seriously.

NAME _____ final score _____

All categories, unless otherwise noted, are for the game itself from kickoff to final gun; no pre-game, studio halftime, or post-game included. A broadcast "reference," as stated in the following categories, includes any commercial, video bumper, broadcaster mention, or wordless on-screen graphic.

1. Of the total commercials in the first half of play, which will be represented more; beer or cars? 5 years ago, this was an even split...4 to 4, then 2 years of 5-3, 11-3 for cars...last year 9-4 in favor of cars. Surprising development. So, we set a line. Cars – 3.5
2. Predict the total verbal or image references during the game for an all new episode of THE LATE SHOW WITH STEPHEN COLBERT, coming up on CBS right after the game. The over/under is 6 and 1/2.
3. Predict the total verbal or image references during the game for an all new episode of SUPERGIRL, on Monday night right there on CBS. Same rules as above. The over/under is 7 and 1/2.
4. Predict the total number of camera shots of Archie Manning in his seat or box. The over/under is 2 and 1/2.
5. Predict the total number of camera shots of random CBS personalities/celebrities. The over/under is 1 and 1/2.
6. Any mention of the word "legacy," in reference to Peyton Manning. The over/under is 1 and 1/2.
7. Any mention of "The Dab" by Nantz and/or Simms. The over/under is 1/2.
8. How many uses of Eyevision 360 will there be? How many times will CBS use their very expensive 360 degree replay toy? The over/under is 2 and 1/2.
9. Total number of shots from Pylon Cam. They're gonna overexpose this wonderful feature. The over/under is 6 and 1/2.
10. Still images or video of John Elway winning his final game as a Bronco. I suspect we'll see the helicopter run play. The over/under is 1/2.
11. Mentions of the 1985 Chicago Bears. You have Ron Rivera, obviously. We'll give them one. The over/under is 1 and 1/2.
12. Predict 2 songs you will hear during the Coldplay/Beyonce halftime extravaganza.

Happy gambling America. Now you can make your own, recliner-bound, vice-infused fun. Or, you could just hope for a good game. But you're not that boring.
