II. Reports

The reports listed in 4-10 below occurred in Clery reportable locations (Clery geography) or where the location was not known or not disclosed (see "Preventing Sexual Violence in Higher Education Act: Frequently Asked Questions Regarding Reporting Requirements," <http://www.illinoisattorneygeneral.gov/rights/PSVIHEareportingFAQs.pdf>).

(4) The number of incidents of sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking reported to the Title IX coordinator or other responsible employee, pursuant to Title IX of the federal Education Amendments of 1972, of the higher education institution.

The following reports involving alleged student victims at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign were received by the university in 2016. These numbers do not include anonymous and confidential reports that are captured in response (5).

Sexual violence	52
Domestic violence	10
Dating violence	18
Stalking	37

Note 1: The above statistics represent reports received in Calendar Year 2016 (hereafter 2016). Accordingly, the statistics may include allegations of incidents occurring prior to 2016, as well as allegations for which the date of the alleged offense was not provided.

Note 2: For sexual violence, the university submitted numbers classified under "sexual assault" per the university's Sexual Misconduct Policy. See <http://cam.illinois.edu/ix/ix-b/ix-b-6.htm> for definitions of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking.

(5) The number of confidential and anonymous reports to the higher education institution of sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking.

Confidential reports involving alleged student victims received in 2016	Number
Sexual violence	273
Domestic violence	9
Dating violence	39
Stalking	6

Anonymous reports involving alleged student victims received in 2016	Number
Sexual violence	9
Domestic violence	0
Stalking	0

Note 1: The above statistics represent reports received in 2016. Accordingly, the statistics may include allegations of incidents occurring prior to 2016, as well as allegations for which the date of the alleged offense was not provided.

Note 2: For the purposes of this report, a Confidential Report is one made to a confidential advisor or a campus confidential resource. Confidential Advisors and campus confidential resources provided aggregate data regarding these categories; no information regarding the complainant, the respondent or the location of the incident was included in this information. Due to the confidential nature of this work, it is possible that someone went to multiple offices for the same incident. Duplicate reports are expected.

Note 3: For the purposes of this report, an Anonymous Report is one where a report was submitted through anonymous platforms and the identity of the alleged victim is not known. Accordingly, it is possible these statistics include students or non-students as alleged victims.

Note 4: For sexual violence, the university submitted numbers classified under "sexual assault" per the university's Sexual Misconduct Policy. See <http://cam.illinois.edu/ix/ix-b/ix-b-6.htm> for definitions of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking.

(6) The number of allegations in which the survivor requested not to proceed with the higher education institution's complaint resolution procedure.

The following are the number of allegations in which alleged student victims requested in 2016 that the university not proceed with the university's complaint resolution procedures.

Sexual violence	24
Domestic violence	3
Dating violence	7
Stalking	21

Preventing Sexual Violence in Higher Education Act Annual Report for Calendar Year 2016
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Note 1: This statistic includes reports where the university did not proceed with complaint resolution procedures based upon alleged student victims who did not respond to the university's requests for information about the allegations or who requested a no contact directive but asked that we do not proceed with complaint resolution procedures.

Note 2: For sexual violence, the university submitted numbers classified under "sexual assault" per the university's Sexual Misconduct Policy. See <http://cam.illinois.edu/ix/ix-b/ix-b-6.htm> for definitions of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking.

(7) The number of allegations of sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking that the higher education institution investigated.

The university treats all allegations seriously. In addition to considering any requests by the alleged student victim for confidentiality or not to investigate the allegations, the university assesses its broader campus safety and institutional responsibilities when deciding whether additional investigation is warranted.

Subject to that, the following statistics reflect the allegations received pertaining to alleged student victims in 2016 that were subsequently investigated beyond the initial investigative assessment:

Sexual violence	11
Domestic violence	2
Dating violence	6
Stalking	6

Note: For sexual violence, the university submitted numbers classified under "sexual assault" per the university's Sexual Misconduct Policy. See <http://cam.illinois.edu/ix/ix-b/ix-b-6.htm> for definitions of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking.

(8) The number of allegations of sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking that were referred to local or State law enforcement.

By Illinois statute, the University of Illinois has a University police force whose officers have the same authority as other state law enforcement officers.

Accordingly, the following statistics include any allegation involving an alleged student victim reported to the University Police Department in 2016, including reports from other police departments shared with University Police:

Sexual violence	11
Domestic violence	5
Dating violence	0
Stalking	21

Note 1: At the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, student complainants are provided information about their rights and options, including their option to report to law enforcement. Trained complainant advocates are available to assist them in making a report to the police. The decision of whether to report or not report an allegation to the police remains with the alleged victim.

Note 2: Please note that for the answer to (8), the University of Illinois Police Department uses the federal definitions for these categories, located on pages 12-14 of the 2017 Annual Security and Fire Safety Report <http://police.illinois.edu/dpsapp/wp-content/uploads/2017/09/ASF5R2017.pdf>.

(9) The number of allegations of sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking that the higher education institution reviewed through its complaint resolution procedure.

The following statistics reflect the allegations involving alleged student victims that were reviewed in 2016 through the university's complaint resolution procedures for student respondents:

Sexual violence	9
Domestic violence	2
Dating violence	5
Stalking	6

Note 1: Some cases reported in the 2015 Calendar Year were resolved in 2016. Some cases reported in 2016 were resolved during the 2017 Calendar Year.

Note 2: For sexual violence, the university submitted numbers classified under "sexual assault" per the university's Sexual Misconduct Policy. See <http://cam.illinois.edu/ix/ix-b/ix-b-6.htm> for definitions of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking.

(10) With respect to all allegations of sexual violence, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking reviewed under the higher education institution's complaint resolution procedure, an aggregate list of the number of students who were (i) dismissed or expelled, (ii) suspended, (iii) otherwise disciplined, or (iv) found not responsible for violation of the comprehensive policy through the complaint resolution procedure during the reporting period.

The following statistics reflect the allegations involving alleged student victims that were reviewed in 2016 through the university's complaint resolution procedures for student respondents:

	Sexual Violence	Dating Violence	Domestic Violence	Stalking
Students dismissed	6	3	1	3
Students suspended	0	0	0	0
Students otherwise disciplined (total of sanctions a and b below)	0	2	1	3
a. Students placed on probation	0	2	1	2
b. Students placed on dismissal held in abeyance status	0	0	0	1
Students whose charges were dropped	0	0	0	0

Note 1: Expulsion is not a possible formal sanction at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. For official definitions of the above sanctions, see http://www.conflictresolution.illinois.edu/student\_discipline/article\_2.asp#204.
