Fighting Sioux don't silence who the university is and its proud heritage....
Fighting Sioux Due to the historical nature of the nickname and relevance to the history of North Dakota and the University the name should be restored.
Fighting Sioux Easy, it is their name and ALWAYS will be!
Fighting Sioux Either we have Fighting Sioux as our nickname or we don't have a nickname at all. Our school has too much pride. Sioux forever.
Fighting Sioux Engelstad embroiled himself in the fight over the Fighting Sioux logo when he built a $104 million arena on the University of North Dakota.
Fighting Sioux Engelstad threatened to withdraw funding if the long standing nickname were to be changed. A recognize Alumni ridicule after his death...
Fighting Sioux Even if a new name is chosen, the community, students,and alumnus will petition for a change.Fight the NCAA/tribes or fight your own people.
Fighting Sioux Even if a new name is chosen, the community, students,and alumnus will petition for a change.Fight the NCAA/tribes or fight your own people.

Fighting Sioux	Great
Fighting Sioux	Great
Fighting Sioux	Great Name
Fighting Sioux	Greatest nickname in the history of any sports team. If Fighting Sioux is offensive than so is Fighting Irish, it's no different.
Fighting Sioux	Greatest team nickname in the history of collegiate or professional sports, and an incredible honor to the Sioux tribe.
Fighting Sioux	Has all the attributes you list above, except und admin, faculty (some), pc crowd and ncaa are hypocrites, and took it away from ND fans.
Fighting Sioux	Having our name ripped from us was disgusting and a disgrace! That name was a GIFT to UND and we haven't soiled that name!! Bring it back
Fighting Sioux	Having the nickname "Fighting Sioux" was an honor. We didn't mean any disrespect only honor and pride!!!!
Fighting Sioux	Heritage
Fighting Sioux	Historic nickname. Strong tradition. /

Fighting Sioux	History.
Fighting Sioux	History.
Fighting Sioux	History. Always & forever will be Fighting Sioux no matter what!
Fighting Sioux	History. Legacy. Forever. .
Fighting Sioux	Honor the Sioux Nation, don't fold to the NCAA, just because UND isn't FSU, Utah or even SDSU doesn't mean the same rules should apply.
Fighting Sioux	Honor... Respect... We are the fighting Sioux
Fighting Sioux	Honor.pride. fight to the end by "burning the ship "tradition of our state heritage...bring honor and respect to the Sioux nation...
Fighting Sioux	honorable, unique, everyone recognizes the SIOUX
Fighting Sioux	Honoring a race of people is not racist, taking away their nickname is discrimination.
Fighting Sioux	Honors the heritage of the noble Native American tribe that made it's home in the upper midwest.
Fighting Sioux	Honors the tradition and heritage of those who came before us. Gives respect to native americans.
Fighting Sioux	honors traditions and heritage of the past. It's a unifying and rallying symbol
Fighting Sioux	How could it hurt to have another discussion with the Standing Rock tribe?

Fighting Sioux how mad with the NCAA really get?
Fighting Sioux How many of these are you getting? I suspect quite a few. That should tell you something...
Fighting Sioux I am 1/8 Native American & proud Fighting Sioux Graduate. Taking away our names makes us feel like we are not good enough.
Fighting Sioux I am a Native American, I wear my Sioux clothing with pride, and I want to keep my Native traditions alive.
Fighting Sioux I am a proud North Dakotan. I was born in Grand Forks and I attended UND. It is the best nickname in the country. Bring it back.
Fighting Sioux I am not returning in fall if you change it to anything else. It's up to you all bureaucrats if you think it isn't important enough. . .
Fighting Sioux I believe Fighting Sioux is a good nickname because it is strong, unique, recognizable, proud, inspiring, passionate, and distinctly UND's.
Fighting Sioux I believe that suggestion #1 should be a nickname because it's been there for as long as I have been alive. Forever Sioux.
Fighting Sioux I believe the Fighting Sioux nickname should be selected because it represents all of the above criteria.
Fighting Sioux I believe the name should be brought back.As a UND Alum,I have had nothing but pride&respect for the Sioux nickname. In time it will return.
Fighting Sioux I do not believe that there was substantial grounds to revoke the "Fighting Sioux" nickname.
Fighting Sioux I do not feel that others should have the say as to what the successful nickname has been so far.
Fighting Sioux I don't think this choice needs any explanation
Fighting Sioux I feel UND is letting the NCAA get "their" way (which isn't necessarily right); the NCAA shouldn't be a dictatorship.
Fighting Sioux I graduated in 2014. I'm from the area. I will do everything in my power to continue the Sioux name. There are many like me. Why fight us?
Fighting Sioux I grew up a Sioux fan, graduated and will forever be a Fighting Sioux Alumnus.
Fighting Sioux I grew up in Grand Forks and played football at UND. Throughout my life I held the tradition, and nickname, with the utmost respect.
Fighting Sioux I have thought about this thru ALL the years of controversy and have never been able to think of something better for UND.
Fighting Sioux I know the Sioux name is done, but no matter what you pick the fans will still call UND the Sioux. Stand up to the NCAA, for the fans.
Fighting Sioux I know we longer can be represented as Fighting Sioux and feel strongly that no nickname is by far what the majority of us alumni want.
Fighting Sioux I should have never been taken away in the first place.
Fighting Sioux I still believe this name should be fought for and that it was gotten rid of inappropriately for political reasons.
Fighting Sioux I strongly believe that our nickname should stay the Sioux because that is our heritage. That is our history. Anything else will be a shame.
Fighting Sioux I think it honors the courage and strength of the native people of North Dakota. The Sioux name and Sioux passion are not dishonorable.
Fighting Sioux I think keeping it "North Dakota" with no nickname is the best and only way to respect the past and look to the future.
Fighting Sioux I think this is a recognizable, unique, and inspiring name which promotes a sense of pride, strength, fierceness and passion. /
Fighting Sioux I think you get the point.
Fighting Sioux I think you know why...
Fighting Sioux I will never attend UND if it is not the Fighting Sioux.
Fighting Sioux I will not stop representing the "fighting Sioux"
Fighting Sioux I will personally help keep the Sioux name and logo alive. If it means creating patches and giving them to every new student then I will.
Fighting Sioux I wonder if it is possible for the University to wait, maybe 5 years or so, and try to enter talks to re-instate the original nickname?
Fighting Sioux I would give anything to have my grandpa, Cal Marvin and our good buddy Ralph Englestad here, I believe it wouldn't have changed!
Fighting Sioux I would rather have no nickname than something other than Sioux. I'm fine with being just North Dakota
Fighting Sioux If it is a good enough logo for the ND highway patrol, it should be good enough for UND.
Fighting Sioux if it's not the fighting Sioux, it should be nothing! UND or North Dakota only!
Fighting Sioux if it's not the fighting Sioux, it should be nothing! UND or North Dakota only!
Fighting Sioux If Native American names cannot be used than the University should also drop "Dakota" from the University name.
Fighting Sioux If Pres Kelly and ND Gov went with Spirit Lake leaders to Standing Rock, an agreement that honors all & the NCAA is totally doable
Fighting Sioux If Sioux tribes say the name is ok, yet it's still banned, it proves the University is too scared to stand up for itself against the NCAA Fighting Sioux If the committee picks another nickname beside Fighting Sioux, another university will have it. Please dont choose Rough Riders.

A form of compromise. Very relevant for the area as the Soo Line Railroad passed through here.

A Soo Line railroad locomotive comin' at you is the mascot. Loophole that will confound the NCAA. I think that railroad runs in ND?

Fighting Soo	Because it should never have changed from sioux.
Fighting Soo	Best choice. Not in use
Fighting Soo	big locomotive coming down the tracks! Strong, fierce, and tough!
Fighting Soo	Can keep the "name" and have a locomotive for a logo. What is the NC$$ going to do?
Fighting Soo	Fighting Soo
Fighting Soo	Fighting sue
Fighting Soo	Fire Robert Kelley
Fighting Soo	Great name with a great storied history in North Dakota.
Fighting Soo	Have a train engine bursting through a wall. Gives credit to our railroads and is a strong name and symbol.
Fighting Soo	History of the state of ND with the old railroad company of the same name
Fighting Soo	If we can't have Fighting Sioux as a nickname then Fighting Soo will have to do.
Fighting Soo	If you refuse to honor the Sioux tradition and honor, then honor the train yards that have been there as long as the town.
Fighting Soo	In honor of the Soo Line Railroad
Fighting Soo	It is similar to the nickname that shouldn't be changed, also it represents the Railroad that ran through the state
Fighting Soo	It keeps the original sound of the nickname. Not sure if it's trademarked. Use a train engine for logo.
Fighting Soo	Just imagine a mascot that would look like a giant mean green Thomas the Tank Engine! Okay, I know that's stupid. Go with my first one...
Fighting Soo	Keeps chants the same without affecting anyones feelings. Storied history and past in nodak.
Fighting Soo	Locomotive as a logo. Really rub it in the NC$$'s face. What are they going to do about it?
Fighting Soo	Logo would be a speeding freight train -- like the Soo line trains. This would keep a familiar name, but remove the controversial component
Fighting Soo	Makes both sides of the nickname issue happy. Robert Kelley also does not deserve to be at UND any longer
Fighting Soo	Makes everyone happy. Not currently trademarked or in use
Fighting Soo	Name has been dropped and discontinued from use, its not currently trademarked. Logo possibilities are endless
Fighting Soo	Not trademarked
Fighting Soo	Not trademarked or subject to 3rd party rights, makrs both sides right, and its unique
Fighting Soo	Not trademarked or subject to third party rights
Fighting Soo	Not trademarked, makes both sides happy, unique to north dakota
Fighting Soo	Not used or trademarked by anyone (including 3rd parties). Unique to north dakota. "Get off the tracks when the train's comin' through"
Fighting Soo	Obvious reason is the railroad running through our town. The haul may be long, but the determination is strong. Steam Engine
Fighting Soo	obvious reasons, steam engine on a jersey would be pretty tight, paying tribute to the heavy hitting nature of sioux hockey
Fighting Soo	Railroad carries all of ND exports... And it's a way to keep the name
Fighting Soo	Railroads led to the development of ND. One runs on the southside of campus. Still a critical part of the state delivering Commodities.
Fighting Soo	Reference to the historic SOO rail line who's main line started in ND.
Fighting Soo	Referring to the train line that has run through ND since 1961. Trains reflect strength, perseverance, pride...our past, and our future
Fighting Soo	Same as above, just incorporating trains that slow me down on 42nd
Fighting Soo	Soo line railroad is a historic railroad that brought strength and stability to the state. Have the logo be a locomotive. Go Soo!!
Fighting Soo	Soo line was a local RR co. Fighting SOO with RR locomotive (engine) as the mascot .-like Thomas the train
Fighting Soo	Soo Railroad line ran through North Dakota. Whats tougher than a train?
Fighting Soo	Sounds awesome. Logo could be a set of railroad tracks with the front of a big steam engine coming at you. Symbolizes being railroaded.
Fighting Soo	Still keeps our tradition and also shows the city and state in terms of railroads and how both have grown by means of transportation
Fighting Soo	The fighting Soo is a railroad that operates in North Dakota.
Fighting Soo	The nickname "Fighting Soo" is a unique name that will be instantly recognizable nationwide and easily accepted for the majority of UND fans

Fighting Soo	The old Soo Line railroad. Still sounds the same when shouting.
Fighting Soo	The railroad has had a huge impact on North Dakota
Fighting Soo	the soo line has a long history in North Dakota
Fighting Soo	The Soo line of the Great Northern Railroad is an integral part of our state's history. It is a testament to our strength and pride.
Fighting Soo	The Soo Line railroad has been in the area for many years. The ability to move resources across the plains is how the valley was populated.
Fighting Soo	The Soo Line railroad is part of our history and identity here in North Dakota.
Fighting Soo	The Soo Line railroad. The Railroad was & is important to the state of ND. I thought of it, since the sound of the name would not change.
Fighting Soo	They are still going to say let's go Sioux, so might as well be Soo. Use a steam engine logo from around the time UND was founded.
Fighting Soo	This nickname pays homage to the history of our state and the enormous impact of the railroad.
Fighting Soo	This nickname would allow UND to retain a similar name while alleviating past controversy.
Fighting Soo	To honor the great traditions that the rail company has had on the North Dakota economy.
Fighting Soo	Trains are awesome, trains helped build ND, trains continue to grow and sustain ND's economy and agriculture. very unique name, sounds great
Fighting Soo	trains run all over our state, and it's a variation of the name that the vast majority truly wants.
Fighting Soo	UND
Fighting Soo	UND fans take pride in calling themselves Sioux so let's continue that tradition but with a different spelling and mascot of railroad car
Fighting Soo	Unique
Fighting Soo	Unique
Fighting Soo	Unique and heritage filled
Fighting Soo	Unique railroad line that ran through north dakota. Its not trademarked or used by anyone else. Makes both sides happy. logo = a locomotive
Fighting Soo	Unique to nodak, has a history in nodak, not trademarked or used
Fighting Soo	Unique, former rail line. Not trademarked. Makes Robert Kelley very uneasy to lose at his own game
Fighting Soo	Very unique. Has north dakota heritage behind it. Rolls off the tongue. Green train of pain
Fighting Soo	We could still have the same name, but instead have a train as a symbol (e.g. Soo Line Railroad)
Fighting Soo	We have a tradition with trains in North Dakota and why can't we use a little word play on something. This is technically a name change
Fighting Soo	Why not try and keep it close
fighting Soo line	Refers to railroad established in the dakotas & minnesota in 1961. / Would work well in sports arena when teams are in play.
Fighting Soo Line Engines	Imagine a r.r. locomotive fighting its way through giant snowdrifts after a ND blizzard. We'll have to lease the name, I suppose. /
Fighting Soo Rail	The Soo Railroad has had a huge impact on our state, and a railroad cannot offend anyone. A similar sounding name will help people adopt it
Fighting Sooie	This was a way to stick it back to the NCAA and change the logo to a warrior pig and keeping the name close to what it was.
Fighting Sooo	Sooo sounds like Sioux. Sooo is nothing, it is an urban legend so it can be whatever we want it to be. Come up with a logo.
Fighting Sooooo	Because Sioux is offensive
Fighting Souhockey
Fighting Souix
Fighting Souix
Fighting Souix
Fighting Souix
Fighting Souix
Fighting Souix	Because its my life and and relpoh would be rolling in his grave if he know guys took the head out of the arena and changed the name /
Fighting Souix	Because no one will accept anything else
Fighting Souix	Goes without saying
Fighting Souix	I'm Lakota Souix and I'm very proud that UND would use this name

Fighting Sue it is not racist and we are the Sioux no matter what Fighting Sue It keeps use having the fighting sioux just a different meaning and saying. Not saying we're "suing" it's a name of a woman
Fighting Sue It promotes a sense of pride and fierceness. It also shows great respect to anyone with the name Sue.
Fighting Sue It's "Politically Correct."
Fighting Sue It's fun and harmless. Picture a housewife in fighting stance (like Notre Dame), her fists clad in oven mitts. Plus, a nod to UND law.
Fighting Sue its not offensive to native americans because Sue is a common women's name.
Fighting Sue Johnny Cash sang about strength and overcoming adversity with his song A Boy Named Sue!
Fighting Sue JUST BECAUSE.
Fighting Sue Just wanted to add a little humor for the committee.. I hope it didn't take a way from your work. Best of luck with the new nickname.
Fighting Sue Law school -- fighting lawsuits (I strongly believe in compromise)
Fighting Sue Like an old house wife wearing oven mitts, but posed like the fighting Irish guy! Take that, other UND!
Fighting Sue Like North Dakota native Sue the T. rex, or Sue Heck from The Middle.
Fighting Sue Like the ifhgting irish mascot, but a fighting house wife ready to kick some butt
Fighting Sue Name is still pronounced the same and it fights getting sued.
Fighting Sue Named after the largest TRex fossils ever found. North Dakota has several TRex dig sites. Won't have to change any cheers at games.
Fighting Sue North Dakota should be a leader in gender equality, and there is currently a lack of female mascots in college sports.
Fighting Sue Obvious resemblance to previous moniker
Fighting Sue Our mascot could be a dinosaur and the dinosaurs name could be sue. this way we are changing the name and logo but still maintaing our ident
Fighting Sue Our mascot would be gray haired, angry grandma, named Sue, and she would be wearing a pink dress and a white flowery apron over the it.
Fighting Sue Our new mascot: A feisty Grand Forks house wife. Part Notre Dame Irish guy, part Rosey the Riveter. She's tough, endearing and all ours.
Fighting Sue Oven mitts, curlers and a bad attitude. Ans the law school will be happy
Fighting Sue Pays homage to the Fighting Sioux nickname and Susan B. Anthony.
Fighting Sue shes a mean lady with lots of fighting spirit
Fighting Sue Simliar ro current name
Fighting Sue Since we refused to sue the NCAA when they bullied us, we need a constant reminder to never lay down and die without a fight again.
Fighting Sue Sound familiar?
Fighting Sue Sue is a t-Rex in a museum in Chicago. Sue is large and in charge.
Fighting Sue Sue is a universally tough, proud name. There is A Boy Named Sue, Sue the Tyrannasaurus in Chicago, and many tough ladies named Sue as well.
Fighting Sue Susan B. Anthony is the new mascot. Maybe with some tasteful eagle feathers in her hair. Politically correct and inclusive.
Fighting Sue The fiercness of the logo remains with a girl with the name Sue wearing boxing gloves and motioning towards the other team.
Fighting Sue The logo has to be Susan B. Anthony.
Fighting Sue The logo would be some sort of lawyer logo
Fighting Sue Think of Johnny Cash song "Boy Named Sue" and/or consider the opportunity to be first coed University to feature a fierce, proud female logo
Fighting Sue This is a politically correct name that preserves our University's heritage.
Fighting Sue This name reflects the old name but now it's an angry old woman. Simply change Sioux to Sue. The same logo can even. still be used
Fighting Sue This nickname would also alleviate controversy. The mascot could be a judge or a girl name Sue.
Fighting Sue This way only white women are offended
Fighting Sue This would be a great name because at the University we are all proud of law school. On the jersey we would have the law emblem.

UND has a law school and my mom, sue went there.
UND will always be NDSU's little sister.
Why mess with tradition?
With a name like Sue you have to be tough. Johnny Cash couldn't be wrong.
Would maintain the original school nickname, but in a slightly different form. Thumbs nose at NCAA and Tribes that forced the name change.
Like Salem Sue, the cow in New Salem, ND!!

It is unique and traditional. Fans will not only appreciate it, but it also empowers women, that hasn't been done before with a mascot.
It's a nod to the law school, it's not hostile, and it keeps tradition going. Go Sue!!!

Because Ole Sue would fire Hakstol, and give UND a championship team.
UND Law is #1 Plus I don't think anyone can be upset by this!
Fairly self-explanatory.

An obvious compromise to the non-problem you had and have Because sue is a tough lady and no school has a female mascot.
Sue Heck, Susan Boyle, Susan Sarandon, Susan Collins, Susie Q
y'all suck

Because it would be funny. Have the logo be two old ladies with rolling pins raised and fist clenched at their sides.
You folks in ND are a bunch of panty waists...so why not fess up and make it your new moniker. Who's going to be offended?
Brings together a plethora of North Dakota symbols because of how integral sugar beets are to the economy, which is a source of pride for ND
North Dakota produces a ton of sugar beets

100% unique and a great form of compromise. A suhaki is an African antelope that is extremely fast, fierce, and unique.
a great animal which defines UND's pride and great heritage russian goat.
Some people believe people want the Russian goat, the Suhaki, because it sounds like Sioux Hockey. That is offensive and I am hurt by that.
suhaki is a goat from Russia and it is offensive if people confuse the Russian goat with a native american tribe that may sound synonymous.
The suhaki is a sacred animal from Russia that deserves respect and I believe the student body will embrace with open arms.
The Suhaki is noble and endangered species. Using this name will help bring notice to their plight and the name has already received support
This IS our nickname. And the true fans will never give it up.
UND can draw inspiration from this endangered antelope's desperate struggle to survive and emerge victorious against all odds.
Zach Parise said it best, save our Suhaki from the winds of change! I love Fighting Suhaki! / / <http://www.suhaki.com/>

Fighting Whities	If it works for a Native American intramural team for the University of Northern Colorado it would be great for UND
Fighting Whities	If we can't be the Fighting Sioux might as well be the Fighting Whities.
Fighting Whities	Most proponents of the "Sioux" are White people. They might appreciate being a racially-motivated mascot.
Fighting Who
Fighting Who	Rhymes with Sioux and reflects our identity crisis.
Fighting Who	Sounds good. Logo would be a ? Warm-ups would play "Who are You" by the Who. "Who are You" becomes a statement, not a question.

Flyers Great aviation program

Flyers I believe it would be a great nickname for the school because it meets the above criteria, and will be especially relevant in the future.

Flyers I think Flyers would represent the aviation program at UND along with the GF Air Force Base. Also, Carl Ben Eielson was from the GF area.

Flyers In honor of the top notch aviation program - the name rolls off the tongue.

Flyers In honor of UND's outstanding/leading aviation pgm. If we do honor it, Flyers is much better/cleaner sounding than Pilots or Aviators.

Flyers In order to honor the memory of Mr. Odegard and the exposure the school has given UND, the "Flyers" should be considered as a new nickname.

Flyers In recognition of the Air Force base.

Ice Dragons Grand Forks is the only known location hospitable to Ice Dragons in the continental United States. It just makes sense.

Ice Dragons I think this is perfect for UND: cold weather and terrifying!

Ice Dragons Ice dragons

Ice Dragons Ice dragons

Ice Dragons It's the University of North Dakota, home of ice and snow for nine months and the people who love there are fierce, like dragons.

Ice Dragons Just please? Maggie really wants it?

Ice Dragons No one will be offended by dragons.

Ice Dragons Offends no one. Easily merchandizable Would make for fun mascot at games / Everyone loves dragons Makes a positive out of the weather here.

Ice Dragons People don't believe north dakotans even exist. People also don't believe that dragons even exist. You have to be a dragon to survive here.

Ice Dragons Really, let's thinks about this-no one is being mocked, everyone fears is, and the homecoming floats would be amazing.

Ice Dragons Sioux forever!

Ice Dragons The ice dragons and mascot are mythical, scary and fitting for ND. And a dragon would be VERY marketable.

Ice Dragons The ice would refer to both the hockey and to the UND weather. Dragons since it is a mythical creature and no one could protest it.

Ice Dragons The only thing better would be to find something in the native Sioux language reflecting the fighting spirit.

Ice Dragons There's no cultural appropriation here, and it proudly displays our climate heritage.

No nickname As the flagship university of the state of North Dakota, I believe remaining The University of North Dakota honors our former Sioux nickname
No nickname Be proud to "break rules" and participate as NORTH DAKOTA. Minimize fighting over Sioux/new name. I will not purchase item with new nickname
No nickname Be proud to be the University of North Dakota, we know who we are and don't need a mascot/nickname
No nickname Be referred to as und to follow ncaa rules but can still represent our heritage
No nickname Be unique!
No nickname Be unique, be different. Be North Dakota.
No nickname Because it's better then having a new one.
No nickname Because there is no need for a new nickname. Solidarity can be found in cheering for North Dakota.
No nickname Because we can't have Fighting Sioux, let's just be North Dakota
No nickname Being known simply as "North Dakota" honors all people of the State past present and future and can never be used by another University.
No nickname Being North Dakota gives those who are not native residents more of a passion behind not only UND but the state as well.
No nickname Can't be the Sioux. Should not have a new name
No nickname Can't replace previous. Maintain University of North Dakota with no logo or nickname if we can't have Fighting Sioux anymore
No nickname continue with no nickname, just use academic logo only.
No nickname Current arrangement satisfies the NCAA & other SIOUX opponents as well as supporters who can continue to prefer the SIOUX name unofficially
No nickname Do the right thing- no new nickname and just be known as UND We have much to be proud of as UND alone. Any new nickname is unacceptable.
No nickname Don't give UND any nickname. With no nickname we will meet the NCAA legal requirements and still always be known as the Sioux unofficially.
No nickname Don't pick something arbitrary like Wind, Sun Dogs, etc...that don't mean a thing. keep it just the University of North Dakota
No nickname Fighting Sioux nickname is incredibly unique for a university and a part of North Dakota heritage. It is not a bland like a color or animal.
No nickname Fighting Sioux or nothing
No nickname Forcing a new nickname on such a passionate fan base will only add fuel to the fire. Let history run its course.
No nickname Honor the Fighting Sioux by not replacing it.
No nickname Honors the history of the school and is also a silent protest of the NCAA for their unjust and uneven application of their nickname rules.
No nickname I believe that we should remain being unnamed. I feel no one will quite agree on a new one, and most students want to stay UND & nameless.
No nickname I am perfectly content with no nickname if we can't be the name granted by an agreement with the tribe in the past, Sioux. / N.Dakota is fine
No nickname I am proud of North Dakota. Be bold, we are ND, that is unique, recognizable, inspiring and distinct.
No nickname I believe that if the NCAA does not allow us to be called what we want to be called, then we should not choose a name.
No nickname I don't feel the University needs a Nickname, I think that would be unique in it self!
No nickname I don't think we can ever replace our moniker, so best to leave it with no mascot.
No nickname I don't think we should get a new nickname so that we can unofficially be the Sioux forever
No nickname I have come to enjoy our teams being just UND, North Dakota, or The University of North Dakota when introduced and referred to in the media.
No nickname I love the ND logo that is used now. I also love the idea of our university being the only school that doesn't have a nickname.
No nickname I picked the same suggestion twice because I feel so strongly that we should have no nickname. ND is a name we can all be proud of. /
No nickname I think anything other than Fighting Sioux is going to fail. Too soon. Need to wait at least a few more years. /
No nickname I won't buy anything with another nickname. I have bins of Sioux stuff that I've been buying up since name was taken away.
No nickname If it can't be the Fighting Sioux then it shouldn't be anything so everyone wins
No nickname if it can't be the sioux then I would like to see no nickname and retain the interlocking ND
No nickname If it is not the Sioux, I would just leave it alone without a nickname.
No nickname If it's not Fighting Sioux than we might as well be nobody
No nickname If it's not Fighting Sioux than we might as well be nobody
No nickname If no Fighting Sioux, then just North Dakota. Let the NCAA explain to all why North Dakota does not have a nickname.

No nickname If not the Fighting Sioux, then nothing. Don't give the NCAA anything since they took from all students and alumni

No nickname If not the Sioux then nothing. This is the best way to honor the storied tradition of our university and the tribe that supported the name.

No nickname If the Fighting Sioux nickname cannot return the best way to remember it is to not replace it.

No nickname if they can't be the Sioux then no nickname

No nickname If they won't be the Sioux, no other name will do

No nickname If UND cannot be the Fighting Sioux then they should just be the University of North Dakota

No nickname If UND cannot be the Fighting Sioux then they should just be the University of North Dakota

No nickname If we can't be the Fighting Sioux then we shouldn't have a nickname. You are trying to change the identity of UND and that is wrong.

No nickname If we can't be the Fighting Sioux, we should just stay UND. At hockey games they will still always say sioux even if there's a new nickname

No nickname If we cant officially be the Fighting Sioux, why try to change tradition with roots deep in this state and university. Please consider this.

No nickname If we can't use Souix then I prefer no nickname

No nickname If we choose a new name, I believe the majority of UND's students are not going to accept it. I would rather have no name than a new one.

No nickname If you attended the recent NCAA Regional at the Scheels Arena in Fargo, it was clear UND is not ready to adopt a new nickname.

No nickname I'm one of those who doesn't think Sioux should have ever been erased. No nickname is working and people can still wear their Sioux gear.

No nickname Is it required by the NCAA to have a nickname? Lets be unique.

No nickname Is very unique. Why do you need one when you represent the greatest state...North Dakota. I think it really makes a statement.

No nickname It is good enough. shows pride and the willingness to be different.

No nickname it is unique and is the only way right now to ensure everyon' opinion is respected. Any new nickname is doomed to be hated.

No nickname It is unique and thus stands out among other college athletic teams.

No nickname It should be the Sioux, but since you suffer from politically correct BS, there should be no nickname.

No nickname It suits all the criteria mentioned above, and the interlocking "ND" serves as the unifying symbol.

No nickname it will always be FIGHTING SIOUX

No nickname It will avoid all future NCAA objections to the objectification of cultures, animals, or peoples.

No nickname Its still too soon to try change the nickname, it makes more sense to stay known as " North Dakota". Don't lose the crowd you already have.

No nickname It's unique: We Are North Dakota! says it all. Variations of the ND Logo, and mascot(s) representing something ND could be used as well..

No nickname It's worked well the past 3 years...why mess it up further. Isn't it enough we were unwillingly stripped of our old mascot????

No nickname Just be known as The University of North Dakota.

No nickname Just be NORTH DAKOTA

No nickname Just be NORTH DAKOTA!

No nickname just be UND.

No nickname Just be University of North Dakota

No nickname Just because we must retire Fighting Sioux, why must we adopt a new nickname? Just go with North Dakota and keep the green and white colors

No nickname Just leave it as the University of North Dakota. Too many people have been hurt over these already, why do we need a nickname??

No nickname Just leave it as UND, keep everyone from getting even more upset

No nickname Just remain NORTH DAKOTA.

No nickname Just stay North Dakota. We can't be the Fighting Sioux, but there is no name that could ever replace it.

No nickname keep as "university of north Dakota"

No nickname keep as "university of north Dakota"

No nickname keep it as it is

No nickname Keep it as North Dakota. No nickname.

No nickname keep our current logo and name if we cannot be the Fighting Sioux. Kelley needs to go.

No nickname	keep our current logo and name if we cannot be the Fighting Sioux. Kelley needs to go.
No nickname	Least offensive and we can proudly represent our state
No nickname	Leave it as UND.
No nickname	Leave it as UND.
No nickname	Leave it as University of ND with no nickname.
No nickname	Leave it the way it is
No nickname	Leave our great athletic teams as simply The University of North Dakota.
No nickname	Let the fans decide. Have the committee members been to a Fighting Sioux hockey game or watched one on television? Fans wear Sioux Jerseys.
No nickname	Let the fans decide. Have the committee members been to a Fighting Sioux hockey game or watched one on television? Fans wear Sioux Jerseys.
No nickname	Let's continue to use UND. It represents our state and we don't need a mascot or nickname - We Are North Dakota!
No nickname	Many of the best nicknames are taken. I would rather see no nickname than a bland one. UND deserves something better than that.
No nickname	Nicknames are passé. North Dakota says it all.
No nickname	Nicknames don't really matter, and not having one, people will still have pride in their school.
No nickname	No Fighting Sioux, no nickname. The attributes listed above are all embodied in Fighting Sioux
No nickname	No Fighting Sioux, no nickname
No nickname	No Fighting Sioux, no nickname. Honor the gift of the name from the Sioux people
No nickname	No Fighting Sioux, no nickname. The attributes listed above are all embodied in Fighting Sioux
No nickname	No logo will ever do justice to this region or its fans like the Fighting Sioux.
No nickname	No logo will ever do justice to this region or its fans like the Fighting Sioux.
No nickname	No name can replace the tradition and pride the students, athletes and alum shared in being the fighting sioux.
No nickname	No name will live up to the last one.
No nickname	no nickname
No nickname	No nickname
No nickname	No nickname
No nickname	No nickname at least doesn't make anyone MORE upset than they already are.
No nickname	No nickname because that is the only politically correct 'nickname' there is, other than colors or feelings.
No nickname	No nickname can ever replace the Fighting Sioux so I would rather just be known as the University of North Dakota which is also unique.
No nickname	No nickname can really replace the Sioux. Be unique and have just "THE University of North Dakota"
No nickname	No nickname is better than some sham thought up to try and sell more merchandise for this corrupt corporation of a school
No nickname	No nickname is needed.
No nickname	No nickname is needed. Continue with the interlocking ND for a logo. Any new nickname would be disliked by somebody.
No nickname	No Nickname is unique, recognizable, and distinctly UND's. Its a sources of pride and representative of the state and has majority support.
No nickname	No nickname or logo will ever replace the previous nickname and logo. Therefore, it should just be UND/North Dakota.
No nickname	No nickname provides focus on the school and state, ie UND-Grand Forks or simply North Dakota
No nickname	No nickname says school spirit, tradition, academics, and ties to the region like the University of North Dakota.
No nickname	No nickname will allow fans to keep the fighting sioux tradition alive.
No nickname	No nickname, and just use the logo. An indian head is not offensive
No nickname	No nickname, just "UND" (each team/coach can identify its own nickname/mascot based on its own goals/inspiration for that season)
No nickname	No other nickname would even come close to the Sioux name.
No nickname	No weather phenomenons, no generic verb/nouns (Wild, Force, Rage), no animals or people that can be construed as hostile in 5 years
No nickname	Nobody will be happy with new nickname. It makes UND unique to have no nickname if we can't have Sioux back.

No nickname North Dakota is all that is needed. Nothing makes me more proud than to say I'm from North Dakota.

No nickname North Dakota is representative of the state and region in a way that honors the traditions and heritage of the past plus the future

No nickname North Dakota is unique and inspiring to its fan base. It instills a sense of pride and passion. What could be more representative?

No nickname North Dakota meets the criteria listed above. If the NCAA and the board of higher education see Sioux hostile the Dakota should be also

No nickname North Dakota says it all. Using any other nickname than Fighting Sioux only lessens the pride, passion, tradition, heritage and strength.

No nickname Not having a nickname is not offensive to anyone

No nickname Nothing is going to replace what was. Better to go with nothing.

No nickname Nothing will be as great of a nickname and have as much meaning as Fighting Sioux. Plus, no nickname could be UND's new claim to fame.

No nickname People can still cheer for the Sioux if there is no nickname.

No nickname People hold the Sioux near and dear to their hearts, a new nickname is NEVER going to change that and thinking it will is plain stupid!

No nickname Please do not select a new nickname. We are proud to just be North Dakota!

No nickname Politics do not belong in sports. If politics take away the original name. Protest by never using a name again!

No nickname Remain "North Dakota"

No nickname Remain just the University of North Dakota

No nickname Same rationale as above

No nickname See above

No nickname See last response.

No nickname Should remain North Dakota

No nickname Should remain North Dakota

No nickname Sioux or nothing

No nickname Sioux or nothing. I'm against political correctness

No nickname Start a trend. what is the point of having a nickname when the school already represents a whole state.

No nickname That way no one will be offended, ever! Simply the University of ND has a nice ring to it. By choosing no nickname, we become very unique.

No nickname The absence of a nickname honors that which has been lost. Also, Dakota means Sioux.

No nickname The best way to diffuse any future controversy is to simply not choose a nickname, and go by North Dakota. We take pride in our state.

No nickname The current "We are One/We are North Dakota" speaks to the individuality and pride of the state and the school. No nickname/mascot needed.

No nickname The fans can use Fighting Sioux and the University won't need one.

No nickname The Fighting SIOUX nickname is a tradition & having no nickname is better than having one that's not the Sioux

No nickname The Fighting Sioux nickname was not removed by choice but thru intimidation by the NCAA. The best choice is to not replace it.

No nickname The Fighting Sioux was a nickname that students, alumni, and the community was proud of & is impossible to replace the rich culture & pride

No nickname The Fighting Sioux will always be our mascot and the University can't take that away from us.

No nickname The history and tradition of the University should not be hidden behind an ill attempt to reestablish an image that is deemed "acceptable".

No nickname The interlocking ND is a great logo.

No nickname The most unique nickname would be no nickname at all. Not adding a nickname allows everyone to be able to express support in their own way.

No nickname the past few years without a nickname has been great... And no one is going to like or buy products with the new nickname

No nickname The Politically correct pussies can shove it.

No nickname The pride that the state of North Dakota & city of Grand Forks hold the Fightng Sioux nickname and people in cannot ever be replaced.

No nickname The Sioux is more meaningful then kust a nickname. It means more to the people of North Dakota. I urge you please leave the name alone.

No nickname The traditions and history of the Sioux name does not need to be replaced. Just be the University of North Dakota.

No nickname The UND - or North Dakota, speaks for itself. No need to downgrade w/ a nickname. I am opposed to Nodak which is too easily open to ridicule

No nickname The University of North Dakota is a unique identity of it's own, we take great pride in being known as North Dakota pride in our great state
No nickname The University of North Dakota is more than acceptable if we cannot have "Fighting Sioux" because of the NCAA Sanctions.
No nickname The University of North Dakota will always been knows to the alumni and students as the home of the Sioux
No nickname TheNCAA doesn't want us to have the old nickname.By not having a nickname,it could be a way to show theNCAAthat we don't want/need a new one
No nickname There is no need for a nickname. Will not improve marketing with Sioux name still prominent and be proud to be NORTH DAKOTA.
No nickname There is no nickname that could ever replace the Fighting Sioux, and to try to do so would be a mistake.
No nickname There is no nickname that could ever replace the Fighting Sioux, and to try to do so would be a mistake.
No nickname There is no other nickname that will convey the pride and spirit of of the university's sporting teams. North Dakota or UND is good.
No nickname There will never be another nickname that will be acceptable to UND fans. Please respect this.
No nickname There will never be another nickname that will be acceptable to UND fans. Please respect this.
No nickname They had the best nickname and were not willing to do what ever was needed to keep the Fighting Sioux
No nickname This is unique and represents the state of North Dakota.
No nickname This seems the most logical. If not Sioux, nothing. Go with what we are using now. This would be very unique. How many schools do that?
No nickname This will eliminate the need to change it in the future.
No nickname This will leave the students and alma mater most satisfied by a mile. It is the only route in which UND will not be scoffed.
No nickname To me it's Sioux or nothing.
No nickname To show you will not roll over to the hypocritical NCAA.
No nickname Too much tension surrounding this issue. There will never be "unifying" consensus. And this fast-track selection process is laughable.
No nickname UND alumni and donors will never embrace a new name, despite what outsider President Bob seems to believe
No nickname UND could be a leader in the collegiate world by foregoing the use of a nickname and stand on the merits of the school's name.
No nickname UND does not require a nickname. UND can take pride in not having a nickname. This would make UND more unique than any other school.
No nickname UND has 80 years of tradition and a $104 Million arena dedicated to honoring the Sioux nickname, anything besides Sioux is an insult to that
No nickname UND has done a great job highlighting the spirit of North Dakota with the block ND. In most fan's minds, nothing could ever replace Sioux
No nickname UND is the Fighting Sioux and any other nickname just doesn't cut it. I'd rather have no nickname at all than anything but Fighting Sioux.
No nickname UND says it all. Dakota means friend/ally and we would be one of the few US colleges without a nickname. Representative of the state.
No nickname UND will always be known as the home of the Sioux a new nickname will be a disgrace to the heritage, better no nickname then any other name
No nickname UND would be the only university to not have a nickname. It would be the most unique non nickname in the country. Proud North Dakotan
No nickname UND would be unique in college athletics.
No nickname Unique. Respects history and tradition while eliminating the controversy with the old name.
No nickname University of North Dakota (UND) is enough of an identifier to all without alienating past alumni and their financial contributions.
No nickname University of North Dakota says it all
No nickname Using "the University of North Dakota" would be much better suited towards the branding of your team, rather than finding a PC replacement
No nickname We are just North Dakota! What's better than that? Please! No lame animal name! The interlocking ND is a great logo.
No nickname We are the University of North Dakota. We do not need anything else.
No nickname We aren't ready at this time to adopt a new nickname, and I don't think we ever will be able to.
No nickname We don't really need one, our passion is just as great now as is was with the Sioux nickname
No nickname We had a great name before and I hate to see a name that I can't get behind. North Dakota is just fine!
No nickname We have lived the past three years without a nickname. It's unique, and proudly displays that we are North Dakota. Let's stick with that.
No nickname We relish the fact that others, media refer to us as exactly what we are--that is, "North Dakota". We are one, unified North Dakota Nation.
No nickname We should remain "North Dakota"
No nickname We should simply be known as the University of North Dakota. Nothing will ever replace our beloved Fighting Sioux.

No nickname We're not ready for a new name, and won't be for a long time
No nickname We've been doing well without one. It makes us unique. All the good rodents are taken by other states.
No nickname We've never had a Nickname or Mascot, why start now. We honored a good of people called the Sioux by naming our Sports Teams after them.
No nickname What could be more unique than having no nickname at all?
No nickname When one says North Dakota they are saying courage, honor, dedication, teamwork, and a land with a future of hope. I love North Dakota.
No nickname With the rich history of the Sioux, a new nickname would not do it justice. Keep it nameless and everyone referring to us as North Dakota.
No nickname You want something, simple and unique. No nickname, we'll be the only school with no name. We don't want some dumb name.
No nickname Your branding for UND is working and you don't always need a mascot.
No nickname -- Just UND
NO NICKNAME AT ALL
NO NICKNAME AT ALL Cause the Fighting Sioux is and always will be OUR nickname. Nothing can change that.
NO NICKNAME AT ALL Choosing no name also eliminates the necessity of assuming a new identity.
NO NICKNAME AT ALL JUST LEAVE US AS NORTH DAKOTA IT SAYS IT ALL THERE ISN'T A NICKNAME THAT WILL EVER REPLACE WHO WE ALL KNOW WE ARE
NO NICKNAME AT ALL No nickname will ever have the meaning that the Fighting Sioux one did so why bother.
NO NICKNAME AT ALL why do you need a nickname when are representing the University of North Dakota?? Why not stand out and not have a silly nickname!
NO NICKNAME AT ALL Would be respectful of all parties involved maintaining the integrity of all the stakeholders. Thank you,
No Nickname is needed.
no nickname or mascot
no nickname or mascot Our unique mascot and identifier was taken from us. Now being just University of North Dakota is rather unique.
No nickname! If we cant be the Fighting Sioux then we shouldnt be anything at all. Any other name would ruin our awesome university!
No nickname! It meets many of stated requirements. It's unique, recognizable, distinctly UNDs, unifying, representative of the state, honorable...
No nickname! It should be the Sioux, but since you suffer from politically correct BS, there should be no nickname.
No nickname! no nickname because whatever you choose nobody will like. Keep it university of North Dakota.
No nickname! no nickname because whatever you choose nobody will like. Keep it university of North Dakota.
No Nickname, just ND No nickname is necessary, North Dakota just works and fits all the criteria listed above
No nickname.
No nickname.
No nickname.
No nickname.
No nickname. You can't replace the beloved nickname, the Fighting Sioux of the University of North Dakota.
No nickname. Absolutely absurd that the fighting sioux was taken away. All those years of tradition and winning seems like it was thrown away.
No nickname. already had a great name, can't have it now so no new nickname needed.,
No nickname. I strongly oppose any effort to adopt a meaningless color or animal. I also oppose reference to Roosevelt, Roughriders or other transient
No nickname. I think no nickname is the one way that satisfies everyone on the issue. It's the proper compromise.
No nickname. If we can't have Sioux that is used all over the state, in the aviation program, etc then make a stand against NCAA overstepping.
No nickname. Its UND Fighting Sioux or nothing!!
No nickname. Just be University of North Dakota. A nickname is not a necessity.
No nickname. Just go with UND/North Dakota. If we can't be the Sioux, then there's nothing else that comes close.
No nickname. Just keep it "North Dakota"
No nickname. Just keep it North Dakota.
No nickname. Just the University of North Dakota with the interlocking ND symbol. Simple, recognizable, classy, no chance of offending anyone.
No nickname. My personal preference would be to have no nickname at all, just leave us as the University of North Dakota.

No nickname.	No need for a nickname. Honor the past by not settling for a new nickname that will never live up to the past.
No nickname.	No nickname can replace the fighting Sioux.
No nickname.	No one will be offended ... which could happen by selecting a nickname. Nicknames are unnecessary.
No nickname.	No other nickname can meet your standards.
No nickname.	North Dakota stands alone just fine. We know who we are and what we stand for, and that is good enough.
No nickname.	Nothing ever chosen will meet the above attributes like The Fighting Sioux has accomplished over eighty years.
No nickname.	Nothing I can think of would fit the criteria listed as desirable for a nickname better than the Fighting Sioux.
No nickname.	The university should stick with no nickname and bill itself as the Flagship University of North Dakota.
No nickname.	There is enough pride in UND and North Dakota to just be called UND.
No nickname.	Unofficially the Fighting Sioux
No nickname.	We are North Dakota. That is enough.

Nodak Oilers
Nodak Oilers	I think because of the oil in North Dakota

Nodak's or Nodak nation	This represent all of North Dakota
NoDaks or Nodaks	This defines who we are, is unique to us, and is an original name previously used by UND - Perhaps using the interlocking ND for our logo

None I'd rather not have a nickname if we cannot have Fighting Sioux.

None If "Sioux" cannot be part of the nickname then I think the school should remain without a nickname, anything else would diminish the legacy.

None If fighting sioux isn't an option, I don't want a nickname.

None If The Fighting Sioux is not used, there should not be a nickname chosen. The Fighting Sioux name was given to the University in 1969.

None If we are not the Fighting Sioux we should remain nameless as a sign of protest to the NCAA.

None IF WE AREN'T THE SIOUX WE ARE NOTHING

None If we can't be the sioux we should just remain the University of North Dakota

None If we can't be the sioux, we should just be North Dakota.

None If we can't have Fighting Sioux then I'd rather have nothing

None I'm not a ND fan, but there was nothing more iconic than the Fighting Sioux.

None It doesn't show pride to conform to the NCAA name standards. It shows pride to take a stand and not take a new nickname because we are told

None It would be unique to be a University without a nickname or logo. What's wrong with being who we are - UND

None Just be north Dakota. No nickname needed. It's Sioux or nothing.

None Just go by North Dakota

None Leave it as North Dakota

None Let the fans chant Sioux for eternity

None Many students would rather just be University of North Dakota rather than adding something none of the students care about at the end.

None n/a

None N/A

None NCAA is a corrupt organization and President Kelly is one of their minions. Also, fire coach Hakstol. That guy is a joke in college hockey.

None Nicknames should not be created on a whim nor as an obligation. The best ones are earned which sometimes takes a long time to occur.

None No other name will prove to be as respected, as honorable, as strong, or as representative of the state and its history.

None No reason to 'create' a nickname. We know who we are.

None None

None Not having a nickname is unique, plus most ppl I talk to support no name over whatever terrible name is suggested

None Nothing else can replace Fighting Sioux!

None President Kelly is an idiot and so is the NCAA! Long live the Sioux!!!!!!!!!!

None Pride and respect should continue for our current one.

None See above.

None Sioux or nothing! Sioux yeah yeah!

None The current varsity athletics without a nickname is fine. To leave them without a nickname will pay the best respect to the old nickname so

None The one we had was not good enough and this way no one 25 years down the road can argue that we are hostile and abusive as we don't have one.

None The student body won't accept I new nickname and will be even more upset with being forced to accept it. No nickname will be best

None The University of North Dakota does not need a nickname. We have a beautiful logo, the Fighting Sioux is retired. Leave as is.

None There is no NCAA bylaw requiring a school to have a nickname. It's too soon to force a new name and logo on this fan base. We're not ready.

None There is no nickname that can replace "The Fighting Sioux".

None There isn't a single word that embodies a sense of pride, strength, fierceness, and passion to our University as much as Fighting Sioux.

None There will only be one nickname associated with UND. In its absence the UND or North Dakota moniker is sufficient.

None this is a load of crap

None this is a load of crap

None To simultaneously preserve UND's rich tradition and settle the issue, adopt no official nickname; "University of North Dakota" is perfect.

None	To simultaneously preserve UND's rich tradition and settle the issue, adopt no official nickname; "University of North Dakota" is perfect.
None	University of North Dakota says it all - NCAA took the old one away, now we'll decline to play any more of their silly games.
None	Unless someone can stand up to the NCAA and 2 SRST chairmen and get FIGHTING SIOUX reinstated, UND teams should remain nameless.
None	Very few names will be publicly accepted. "None" is safer than ending up with something like...god forbid "Northern Lights"
None	We are the SIOUX FOREVER no matter what you pick so just leave it alone. Being referred as "North Dakota" is a pure statement of independence.
None	We don't need a new nickname - University of North Dakota (insert sport/club here) is the best option.
None	We should go without a nickname and simply be known as ND. (Let's hear NDSU fans chant ND sucks and see how that goes over with the citizens)
NONE!	I think it would be unique and represent a strong presence! No other college can claim that. 50-100 years from now, it will still be relevant.
none.	Best name has been retired.
none.	I feel this issue is much too emotional for many alumni and students at this time. I was raised and educated on an Indian reservation in ND
none.	Let's just go with what we have since the NCAA took away our beloved nickname.

I grew up in Grand Forks and played football at UND. Throughout my life I held the tradition, and nickname, with the utmost respect.

I think we need to fight to get the a Fighting Sioux name back! Many things have happened and sealed documents need to be unsealed! Go Sioux

It meets the above mentioned attributes and continues the tradition of the Sioux.

Its recognizable, Distinctly UND, has great strength,pride, and fierceness, Its a rallying SYMBOL and "it has always represented ND Hockey".

It's the most respected and known name in the country.

Leave out the word Fighting Sioux.

No need for a rationale explanation, enough said!

North Dakota

North Dakota people are proud of the original name as expressed in a vote. This is second best choice for all loyal fans and Alumni

See rationale above

Sioux FOREVER.

Take the "fighting" part out and it is no longer offensive or subject to Washington / NCAA scrutiny.

There will be no name other than the Sioux

These are the only two names that are fitting for the University of North Dakota.

This was approved by all concerned parties when it was enacted

That's basically how we feel right about now. Been a joke of a process.

A tip-of-the-hat to the strong aviation program, plus as a native North Dakotan, the hawk has always been a constant in our landscape.

UND is known as an aviation school, so therefore I think its fair to use an Aviation term.

North DakotaND	I would like to see us stick with ND as our logo and have no additional nickname. I've grown fond of the force behind just being ND.
North Dakota-no nickname	If it's not the Sioux, nothing else would do. What is wrong with simply North Dakota? It's who we are, not some random animal or slang.
North Dakotans
North Dakotans	because there are no other nicknames that reflect the people's desire to not have a nickname .
North Dakotans	Elegant in its simplicity. NCAA couldn't possibly argue with this one. Could they?

North Dakotans	North Dakotans have a long and proud history in North Dakota
North Dakotans	PLEASE DON'T CHOOSE A RANDOM NICKNAME. NORTH DAKOTA IS UNIQUE ON IT'S OWN REGARD. WE DON'T NEED A NICKNAME WITHOUT TRADITIOI
North Dakotans	That encompasses everything we are here in North Dakota - we are proud to be North Dakotans.

SaintMakers	I was trying to think of one of the Saint that could be used for this team after reading of a team called the St Clair .

same	Gets people relating, and a lot shorter to say R than Fighting or likely any other word. No one would be offended, but / rather proud of Respe

Samurai, or Green Samurai	It is unique and has not been utilized at any level of sport in the US and would instantly make UND recognizable.
Sand Baggers	Sand bagging has been bringing the community together for a common purpose for decades.

Scandies	Because the ND population consists mostly Scandinavian descendants, I believe we should name our hockey team this.

Sell the nickname rights	University of ND.....Big Macs/Swooshes/Cadillacs/Heralds/etc. / Make some money and lots of free exposure thru joint promotions.

SIOUX Because that was the original name for our team. It represents the Indians not demeans or belittles them
SIOUX Because fuck you, that's why.
SIOUX Because I am an alumni and I have nothing but pride in the sioux
SIOUX Because if my tuition money is supporting the change, let's keep it the same
SIOUX Because it always will be the Sioux. Let's honor the Natives and include them in our game rituals and selection of nickname.
SIOUX Because it doesn't matter what you call them. They will always be The Sioux!!!!
SIOUX Because it has and always will be what I call them.
SIOUX Because it has and will always be what I call them.
SIOUX because it is and will always be the face of the university.
SIOUX Because it is not offending anyone, as it should have been made evident by now.

SIOUX Because its not offensive and there is years of tradition behind it.
SIOUX because it's our name and you are already losing $$ on sale of merchandise do u want to lose more $$ we will NOT buy any type of new logo
SIOUX Because its who North Dakota is!
SIOUX Because it's who we are. This allows us to keep most of our tradition. The name Sioux will always be present at hockey games anyways.
SIOUX Because my family were the ones that held the ceremony blessing the nickname for UND, and some racist nobodies can't take away their honor!
SIOUX because sioux
SIOUX Because SIOUX is history. It is Iconic, and it is tradition.
SIOUX Because that is the schools nickname.
SIOUX Because that is UND's nickname.
SIOUX because that is what they will always be known as SIOUX BECAUSE THATS WHAT IT SHOULD ALWAYS AND WILL ALWAYS BE
SIOUX because the name was fine in the first place
SIOUX Because there's nothing more depressing than walking into that beautiful hockey arena and it just be the home of UND. / / -U of M alumni
SIOUX Because they are the sioux you dipshits can't change that
SIOUX BECAUSE WE ARE THE FIGHTING SIOUX!
SIOUX Because we don't want a new nickname. Sioux or nothing
SIOUX Because we were the Sioux for over 70 years. It's who we are, and tradition and history is more important than being PC.
SIOUX because we will always be the Fighting Sioux. Duh.
SIOUX Because we will always be the Sioux.
SIOUX Because you can never take away the name

SIOUX Best name in college hockey

SIOUX Fighting Sioux Forever
SIOUX Fighting sioux forever
SIOUX Fighting Sioux Forever
SIOUX Fighting Sioux Forever!
SIOUX fighting sioux forever. .
SIOUX Fighting Sioux very well could have been Hostile and Abusive, but Sioux represents North Dakota, Heritage, and Pride.
SIOUX Fine. Let's take out the Fighting part. There isn't another fitting nickname for UND. UND is so Sioux they named their airplanes after it.
SIOUX Fire Reeser.
SIOUX Forever Sioux
SIOUX Forever Sioux
SIOUX Forever Sioux
SIOUX Forever Sioux
SIOUX Forever Sioux
SIOUX Get rid of "fighting" maybe that will work fine with the standing rock tribe
SIOUX Get rid of the "Fighting"
SIOUX Grew up Cheering for the Sioux and still is in my heart!
SIOUX HAD THE WORD "FIGHTING" BEEN REMOVED IN THE PAST, WE WOULDN'T BE AT THIS POINT.
SIOUX Having the nickname Sioux, without "fighting" in front, should make it so it is no longer offensive to any natives, and shows school pride.
SIOUX heritage
SIOUX Heritage
SIOUX Heritage, History and 80 years of UND tradition. If the "Fighting" part was offensive, then at least use "Sioux."
SIOUX Historic and not hostile
SIOUX History and tradition. Political Correctness has overrun our country and it is a shame that you backed down for the hypocrites at the NCAA.
SIOUX History of the people in the area
SIOUX History of UND. As an alumni I will not donate to UND if the nickname is not Sioux or North Dakota.
SIOUX History, Pride
SIOUX history, tradition, honor
SIOUX History. Tradition.
SIOUX History/Pride of the school while removing the "offensive" fighting moniker.
SIOUX Honor our ND Native Americans
SIOUX honor, loyalty, history, passion...we will always be the sioux there is nothing that can change that
SIOUX HONORABLE, RESPECTED, ADMIRER, RECOGNIZABLE SIOUX honors the Elders decision to let UND use the name
SIOUX Honors the heritage & culture of ND's original leaders & inhabitants. Without "fighting" is can no longer be deemed hostile & abusive.
SIOUX I always felt it was a proud and strong name! We were all proud to be the fighting Sioux! Many teams have names like that and no problems!
SIOUX I am a proud UND alum and I completely disagree with NCAA in regards to our nickname being hostile. Maybe by dropping fighting everyone wins
SIOUX I believe by removing fighting from in front of sioux makes this nickname much more politically correct.
SIOUX I believe Sioux should be a nickname because it isn't a racist name. Fighting Sioux was offensive but just Sioux is not.
SIOUX I believe that the "fighting" part of the moniker was the main point of contention; "Sioux" could still be used in honor of the tribe.
SIOUX I believe that the Sioux nickname accurately reflects the values our university empasizes. We work together, firecely and positively.
SIOUX I believe that this nickname would be less offensive with the word "fighting" removed.

SIOUX It eliminates the "Fighting" aspect and with a new logo should be passable and respectful. This keeps us United as a university and out past
SIOUX It exemplifies pride and the heritage of the great state of North Dakota.
SIOUX It fits the criteria. If we drop the "fighting," maybe it will be less offensive.
SIOUX It has been a long standing and recognized name.
SIOUX it honors everyone's history
SIOUX It honors the ancestors of the area, the people from which, we as Americans, inherited this land. It promotes pride, strength, and passion.
SIOUX It honors the native americans of this state and represents pride and tradition for the state North Dakota
SIOUX It honors the native tribes and it brings back memories for us old grads
SIOUX It honors the traditions and heritage of the past but also looks to the future
SIOUX It is a great second choice!
SIOUX It is historic and by removing "fighting" takes away any negative connotation
SIOUX It is impossible to replace the pride and tradition at UND. It will be a disgrace to UND to choose any other name.
SIOUX it is not offensive nor abusive and shows the cultural heritage and significance of the state of North Dakota.
SIOUX It is one of the most recognizable parts of North Dakota history and honors those who proudly represent the North Dakota area.
SIOUX It is similar to previous nickname, without the offensive "Fighting" in front of it. It will likely be used regardless of new nickname.
SIOUX It is the only one already sanctioned and blessed by the Indian sioux
SIOUX It is the only RIGHT name for the school. The tribe gave the name in a ceremony and to disregard that is a disgrace!
SIOUX It is the true identity of our University.
SIOUX It is UND
SIOUX It is unique recognizable inspiring & distinctly UND. Promotes a sense of pride strength fierceness & passion honors traditions & heritage.
SIOUX It is unique, recognizable, inspiring, and distinctly UND's. / It promotes pride, strength, fierceness and passion. / It represents the state.

SIOUX It is who UND is, and no longer offensive because they are not "fighting"
SIOUX It is who we are and who we will always be.
SIOUX It is who we are and who we will always be.
SIOUX It isn't offensive, as it does not interpret "fighting", and it keeps UND tradition
SIOUX It meets all of the attributes
SIOUX It meets all of the attributes!!
SIOUX It meets all of the criteria and doesn't embrace the mighty Sioux tribe in a negative manor and a strong name that can be embraced
SIOUX It meets every one of the desired attributes.
SIOUX It never was the Fighting Sioux, it is not abusive or offensive in any way shape or form, the NCAA should look at their own problems.
SIOUX It provides the tradition and honor that OUR university portrays.
SIOUX It removes the "fighting" portion of the name that seems so offensive to a small number of people.
SIOUX It removes the negative connotation of "Fighting" that seemed to be the issue of the peaceful Sioux tribes.
SIOUX It removes the offensive nature of "fighting" / Students will have a very hard time without the Sioux name
SIOUX It shows courage and strength.
SIOUX It was given to UND by the tribe and it should be respected versus disrespected as it is now
SIOUX It was good enough for Phil Jackson to play under the Nickname. After betraying the trust of Ralph Englested and all the money he gave....
SIOUX It was our original name and is still valued today.
SIOUX It would just be North Dakota Fighting Sioux but without the fighting
SIOUX It's a good name and nomatter what it is people are always going to call them the Sioux

SIOUX It's an honor to use a name like that at our university!
SIOUX It's close to the original name
SIOUX It's not hostile and abusive with the "Fighting" removed.
SIOUX It's not hostile.
SIOUX It's not offensive
SIOUX It's not offensive
SIOUX It's our history.
SIOUX its our identity
SIOUX It's part of history!!
SIOUX It's part of history!!
SIOUX It's prideful, something that won't be taken away.
SIOUX It's takes the fighting away from the old one, which is no longer "offensive". It's what Florida state did
SIOUX its the best don't change just take the fighting off
SIOUX It's the best nickname ever.
SIOUX Its the only name the fans and students want. so either fight to get it back or dont change it at all
SIOUX Its the only one that is right!
SIOUX It's the only right option! Give back our honor, tradition and respect! Stand up for what's right! What's ND!
SIOUX It's the same strong, proud, fear inspiring name but without the controversial fighting part. The Sioux name will live forever no matter wha
SIOUX its und original nickname
SIOUX I've believed for a long time that the prefix "fighting" should have been eliminated from the nickname, to better represent the indian tribe
SIOUX Just another version of the before stated
SIOUX Just as some high school mascots in the state of North Dakota have an American Indian mascot (Indians, Warriors, Braves, etc.) so can UND.
SIOUX Just drop the fighting and keep our local heritage and traditions in tact.
SIOUX just drop the fighting part of the name so it doesn't make it seem violent
SIOUX Just drop the fighting. That is the issue, correct!?
SIOUX just drop the word fighting and that should please both sides.
SIOUX Just in case you don't like "the" in front of it.
SIOUX Just remove "fighting" from it. Nothing derogatory about the name Sioux
SIOUX Just remove the fighting from the Fighting Sioux. Bring back the old logo. The fighting part is what offended people. So just take it out.
SIOUX Just take away the fighting. I wish I could come up with something to do with farming. Somehow fighting farmers doesn't cut it. :)
SIOUX Just take the fighting off and leave it plain Sioux and then it should not be considered offensive.
SIOUX Keep the icon and name as it is now. It is a part of UND for many years and it is recognized as UND. I still feel it is a show of strength.
SIOUX Keep the respectful tradition of the past 80 years alive. Just look at the fans during the Frozen Four. Do not fold to the NCAA.
SIOUX Keeping the Sioux name is a compliment to the Natives. Symbol/mascot is full of pride and symbolism and is beautiful-horrible to eliminate SIOUX Kelley is a puppet for Reeser.
SIOUX Kelly is a hypocrite. He never mentioned money losses until it was conveniently in his favor. Don't bow down to political correctness.
SIOUX Kelly wants to ram a new nickname through asap. He doesn't care what it is as long as it is politically correct
SIOUX Leave it alone....we'll always be the Sioux
SIOUX Leave off the "fighting" part.
SIOUX Leave out the "fighting". Since that's what is causing this whole ridiculous issue. Just let us be the North Dakota Sioux.
SIOUX Leave out the fighting, unsure if this could ever work. If not, it is in my view that no nickname is better than something that won't catch.

SIOUX Less "violent"
SIOUX lets be honest students and other fans won't accept anything else but the sioux
SIOUX Let's be honest you cannot take away Sioux from is, Ralph would be very disappointed and would side with us students.
SIOUX Let's give it another couple of years and let the NCAA realize that the Sioux name is not offensive.
SIOUX logo, uniforms, the tradition & the spirit of being a Sioux are of lasting value and immeasurable significance to our past, present, future.
SIOUX Long live Fighting Sioux
SIOUX Long standing tradition awarded by the elders.
SIOUX longest name the sioux have ever had
SIOUX Look at what the criteria is for a name, . . .also note the state patrols mascot.
SIOUX Maybe if UND would fight back and say we have a history here and are keeping the name, I would once again be a proud life long ND resident!!
SIOUX Maybe this won't be offensive
SIOUX Meets all / Attributes
SIOUX Meets all 4 criteria perfectly. Only name that does so.
SIOUX Meets all above criteria
SIOUX Meets all attributes
SIOUX Meets all attributes
SIOUX Meets all attributes
SIOUX Meets all criteria of the suggested attributes.
SIOUX Meets all criteria.
SIOUX Meets all of the suggested attributes
SIOUX Meets all the requirements. Best logo in college. And drops the 'Fighting' part.
SIOUX Most appropriate....
SIOUX Name that inspires pride.
SIOUX Names should stay the same. Just remove the Fighting off the name
SIOUX NCAA said we just cant host home playoff games using Sioux. We can drop the fighting part and play as the Sioux.
SIOUX NCAA says we can use it just not for home playoff games. The playoffs were already hosted in Fargo so what is there to lose?
SIOUX Never give in to bullying
SIOUX Never give on to bullying
SIOUX No fighting, just pure love and pride.
SIOUX no fighting, just sioux
SIOUX no matter / No matter what happens to the fans they will always be the SIOUX. Doesn't have to be the fighting Sioux. / /
SIOUX No nickname
SIOUX No one's going to let the sioux name die oht anyways
SIOUX No other name can replace it. The majority of the Native Americans also approve of it and if a fair vote can be put together it would pass.
SIOUX No other name will replace this.
SIOUX no other option
SIOUX none
SIOUX Noone has identified whether it is the word "Fighting" or "Sioux" that is offensive to a minority of people. Take Fighting out
SIOUX North dakota
SIOUX Not offensive, it's a name of a group

SIOUX	Same reason as #1
SIOUX	School history and moral
SIOUX	School moral and school history
SIOUX	See above, but PC version

SIOUX	See rationale above.
SIOUX	See rationale for #1.
SIOUX	See! It's not the Fighting Sioux. Much less offensive.
SIOUX	Should have never been changed leave politics out of this proud and storied tradition

SIOUX	Shows pride and respect for the tribe.
SIOUX	Shows Pride in North Dakota
SIOUX	Simple - just remove the word "Fighting" as that probably contributed the most to the former name being considered offensive.
SIOUX	Since 1930 this has been our nickname and I don't believe the NCAA has the right to force us to change. Just the name, no logo if needed
SIOUX	Since apparently the Sioux didn't fight.

SIOUX The history, tradition, promises made to the Ralph. Look at Florida State, Illinois, etc. It is respectful and proud and the right thing.
SIOUX The majority of Sioux nation people want this name. They've experienced historical trauma; now we further oppress by removing the Sioux name
SIOUX The name "SIOUX" is the only truly right name. Pride: Yes. Honor: Yes. Tradition: Yes Integrity: Yes
SIOUX The name has a long sense of pride and tradition with the university. Without "Fighting" I do not see how the name could be offensive.
SIOUX The name should never have changed. I'm of Scandinavian decent and not protesting the Vikings football team...and I hate football.
SIOUX The name Sioux with the current logo as it was not found to be abusive or hostile by 70% of the native americans at Spirit lake.
SIOUX The name was gifted to UND by the Sioux Tribe & it is an insult to the tribe to drop the name
SIOUX The nickname is unique, inspiring, and distinctly UND's. It promotes a sense of pride, honors our state, the past, and looks to the future.

SIOUX The nickname SIOUX fits all of the criteria that the Nickname Committee has outlined above. The nickname SIOUX is inspiring and honorable.
SIOUX The only fair and right name to have. Tradition!
SIOUX The only name we should ever have.
SIOUX The only nickname that everyone is going to rally behind and fufills all of the attributes is the one we had. Just leave off fighting.
SIOUX THE ONLY OPTION
SIOUX the Ralph is too great of a place to take it away. If you have to take anything away, take away the "fighting". Plenty of other teams have.
SIOUX The Sioux are a great family of people living in North Dakota and their heritage and name recognition will be preserved using Sioux.
SIOUX the Sioux are representative of the state of North Dakota. They have an 80 year history with the university that has a deep tradition
SIOUX The Sioux name has a strong meaning to the UND community and bringing it back you increase support for the university.
SIOUX The Sioux name will never go away! UND and the NCAA need to realize and accept it. So they might as well embrace the name! Sioux forever!!
SIOUX the Sioux nickname is unique, recognizable, inspiring, and distinctly UND's. It promotes a sense of pride, strength, fierceness, and passion
SIOUX The Sioux nickname meets every single attribute you have listed above. Dropping "fighting" from the name removes the "hostile" implication.
SIOUX The Sioux people ar proud that UND used their name! It's unique, inspiring, recognizable, and distinctly UND's!
SIOUX The Sioux take pride in there name, they are passionate about it. Thats why most people are still fighting for this name.
SIOUX The sioux were silenced
SIOUX The Sioux will always be the Sioux.
SIOUX the state is nicknamed the Sioux state so it would be a name that gives tribute to ND. Plus it takes away "fighting" so it wont "offend"
SIOUX The students just want out name back. Most of us are filled with such pride to be a Sioux, nothing could ever come close.
SIOUX The University athletics will always be referred to by many as the Fighting Sioux. I still believe this to be the best name to the school.
SIOUX The university really dropped the ball on fighting to keep this nickname. It is not racist in any way and should be reinstated.
SIOUX The word fighting was derogatory and the problem just drop fighting or else just leave it North Dakota
SIOUX The word fighting was the big issue, not Sioux itself
SIOUX Then we come still wear our old stuff
SIOUX There can be no nickname for the University of North Dakota other than the Sioux.
SIOUX There is no disgrace in the name. It embodies what a North Dakotan is: pride, fierce, loyal, forgiving, empathetic, hard working.
SIOUX There is no hostility in this name. There is no racism in this name. NCAA accepted one tribe's vote in all other exceptions.
SIOUX There is no other possible nickname which would demonstrate the same amount of honor, courage, respect and loyalty as the Fighting Sioux.
SIOUX There, we took out the word Fighting. Keep Sioux pride.
SIOUX This drops "Fighting" which was the offensive portion.
SIOUX This helps keep the history and tradition of UND in the nickname. And it is not saying "fighting" at the beginning, so it's not offensive

SIOUX	we just take the fighting out of it and how is it different than the Florida seminal. This school will always for its eternity be the sioux
SIOUX	we ought to be able to fight to keep the name.
SIOUX	We take out the fighting and it should be good.
SIOUX	We will always and forever be remembered as the Sioux. Sioux yeah yeah!! Talk about a unifying and a rallying symbol!
SIOUX	We will always be sioux
SIOUX	WE WILL ALWAYS BE THE SIOUX

SIOUX	well the name fighting SIOUX was an issues so cut the fighting off and we got SIOUX!
SIOUX	were forever the fighting Sioux
SIOUX	wevwill always be sioux
SIOUX	What if they were called the Germans or Norwegians or whatever, someone would find some reason it would be offensive.
SIOUX	While an undergraduate, UND accepted as an eternal obligation to protect and hold sacred the precious Native gift of the name Sioux!
SIOUX	Why change it completely just change it up a little bit.. The Sioux where silenced let them be heard
SIOUX	Why does FL state get to keep their name?
SIOUX	Why not have the logo be a thundering locomotive from the Sioux line railroad? Not Native American at all. Loophole!!
SIOUX	With Engelstad arena bearing many old logos, the only choice is to cover up North Dakota's history, or celebrate its cultural contributions.
SIOUX	without the "fighting", if that's so bad. DO NOT CHANGE THE COLORS
SIOUX	without the fighting portion
SIOUX	You are still the Sioux but without the "Fighting". Seems to me that "SIOUX" shouldn't be degrading or offensive at all.
SIOUX	You asked for something strong and with a history. This is it!
SIOUX	YOU CAN NOT TAKE IT FROM US
SIOUX	You can't change a schools name and expect it to have the same pride as the previous years. Dropping the "fighting" part would be perfect.
SIOUX	You can't replace our name
SIOUX	You know all the reasons already why the University of North Dakota should be called the Fighting Sioux!
SIOUX	You remove the fighting and it is not hostile or abusive.
Sioux drop the Fighting	the fighting part of the nickname was the problem not Sioux
Sioux of North Dakota	I am a proud seventh generation Lakota Sioux from Sitting Bull. My father played for UND in 58,59, and I feel its a respectful proud name.
Sioux or nothing	anything else is insulting to alumni
Sioux or nothing	Because the tribe agrees with the name if UND has to change it than every pro,college, hs should change theirs
Sioux or nothing	Now matter what you decide on if other than Sioux or North Dakota with no nickname people are still gonna call them Sioux.
Sioux Rule
SIOUX!
SIOUX!	Because I am full blooded Sioux and proud of how UND Athletics Represent our name.
SIOUX!	Drop the "fighting" if that makes pompous bureaucrats feel better
SIOUX!	If we will not be allowed to be ourselves, we will remain nameless.
SIOUX!	This is non-offensive, it doesnt have the word "Fighting" and shows our love and appreciation of our heritage.
SIOUX!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!	Drop the fighting and keep the Sioux. Pick a logo deemed not offensive by the NCAA and you have a logical solution
Sioux.	President Kelley and others are trying to hard to take the pride and tradition away from not only this university but the sioux community

Sioux.	This honors the name of the Indian tribe and removes the "fighting" reference.
Sioux.	UND has a proud and respectful tradition with this name. Precedence is still being set. We don't need fighting. We can honor NoDak heritage.

Skeeters	ND has so many mosquitos!

Sky Force	Reflects the wide open skies of the state; UND's strong aviation program; and would indicate strength
sky hawks flying hawks	and flying school
SkyHawks

SkyHawks	It would recognize the Aerospace program at UND, and also perhaps the Global Hawk Drone.
SkyHawks	Showing the aviation pride and the Cessna 172 skyhawks that our pilots fly
SkyHawks	The "Skyhawks" will embrace the spiritual Hawk, the aviation program and the GFAFB. The Fighting Hawks with fear and respect will unite UND.
SkyHawks	The hawk is a spiritual and majestic bird very common to ND. It is an essential player in maintains natures balance. Would be a graceful log
SkyHawks	UND = aerospace program (sky). UND is part of the amazing open space we know as the ND prairie and the hawk is a fearless hunter.
SkyHawks	Would recognize the Aerospace program at UND, the Aerospace Industry that is becoming a large part of our area, and the Global Hawk drone.

Snow Bears
Snow Bunnies	Bunnies are cute. Everyone likes bunnies.
Snow Devils	Because of the climate, and it would be a cool logo.
Snow Devils	Snow is lame, but snow is also our tradition. Devils are fierce. So combine the two, and you have a cool name.

Snow Eagles	Unique. Representative to the region. Symbolic. Has a sense of passion.
Snow Geese or Snows	Native to general area (ND, Minn, Canada), beautiful, powerful and graceful, cover a lot of ground, thrive by working & living as a team.

Thunderbolts	Raging thunderstorms are a fixture on the plains of America. Their awesome fury is an awesome and humbling sight.
Thunderbolts	Shows fierceness and strength
Thunderbolts	UND has a growing reputation for aviation and a long relationship to the very important Air Force base. From the P-47 in WWII to the A10...
Thundercats
Thunderer
Thunderer	In the history of the Sioux tribes the Thunderer, or Thunderbird was a powerful figure. It's a magnificent symbol of power.
Thunderheads	Thunderer (Wakinyan): Known in English as the Thunderer or the Thunderbird, Wakinyan is a powerful sky spirit of Sioux Indian legends.
Thundering Bison
Thundering Herd	Massive and bold. They are unique to the plains and thundered through the landscape creating the earliest paths into the region.
Thundering Soo
Thunderwolves
Tiger	Conjures immediate vivid impression of strength & ferocity. Exciting for fans/athletes; intimidating to opponents. Will $ell many t-shirt$.
Timberwolf	Tigers are awesome
To Adolf from Ralphie	part of ND animals that are endangered also a strong animal that shows courage
To have NO NAME	see: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ralph_Engelstad#Nazi_controversy
To remain UND	There will never be another name that is as honorable, strong, or as recognized as the SIOUX!
Tofus	To remain the proud University of North Dakota.
Tom Hanks	Tasteless and laçjing substance.
Tommies	This would get media attention and have people care about UND on a national scale.

Tribe A tribe is defined as a group of people sharing an occupation, interest, or habit; a large family. This is how we should feel as a community

Tribe A tribe is defined as a large group of people whom share an occupation, interest or habit; a family. UND is very much so a large family

Tribe Because Roll Tribe

Tribe Closest thing to Sioux without being it

Tribe Community linked by social, economic, religious, or blood ties, with a common culture and dialect; the University of North Dakota Tribe.

Tribe Defined as: Group of people sharing an occupation, interest, or habit; a large family.

Tribe Doesn't stray too far from the Sioux

Tribe Exudes pride and fierceness.

Tribe Group of people

Tribe group sharing a common interest, large family. Represents UND well.

Tribe I believe it should become "the tribe" because it represent our Native American heritage with respect and doesnt single out a specific tribe

Tribe I believe that using Tribe would be a reflection to the old & bridge to the new while showing community with the university as a whole.

Tribe i feel like the Tribe nickname allows us to hold on to some of our heritage without offending a group of people.

Tribe I like how it is like the Sioux name.

Tribe I love the Native American theme.

Tribe I think it is a tribute to the past, but also has a sense of community.

Tribe I think it would be a good representation of the school

Tribe Is a less offensive, and also sticks to a Traditonal pattern

Tribe It embodies the spirit and pride of UND while not being racist. It also takes our history into effect.

Tribe It honors our present legend, and would not refer to any particular group of people.

Tribe It is catchy. The term "Roll tribe" is already used. And if you define "tribe" it sums up the community at UND

Tribe It is not offensive in any way because tribe means a group of people who share a common view and interest which would be perfect for UND

Tribe It is one syllable like Sioux and also fits with the culture of the state

Tribe It shows ownership to somewhere we, as University of North Dakota students, faculty, & community members, are proud to belong. ROLL TRIBE!

Tribe It still is Native American related.

Tribe It will meet the students satisfaction of the name Sioux being gone, and still sounds like a team name that everyone could enjoy

Tribe It would be an exceptional new name that would work well.

Tribe its a more politically correct way to still hang on to our heritage.

Tribe It's a name related to the Sioux so our traditions wouldn't have to change, yet it's not offensive because no particular tribe is named

Tribe Keeps to our roots.

Tribe Keeps tradition alive

Tribe Maintains connection to old logo, does not single out a specific tribe allows for a logo reminiscent of old logo. May be in gray area??

Tribe Most all of the upper midwest was initially settled by Native American tribes; this name continues the tradition.

Tribe Non offensive based on the descriptions I have found on any database

Tribe North Dakota has a great history of Native American tribal groups in our state. A tribe is a family much like everyone at UND.

Tribe North Dakota state history

Tribe	Pays homage to the Sioux and all tribes who had settled in ND
Tribe	Potential to keep a lot of the same heritage and logos
Tribe	roll tribe
Tribe	Shows unity, love, and respect for one another
Tribe	Similar to the Sioux, but more generic and less offensive.
Tribe	Simple name that describes the unity amongst UND Alumni and supporters which shouldn't offend anyone.
Tribe	Since Sioux is out of the question, this is the next best thing. Or no nickname at all.
Tribe	Sioux was the most recognizable nickname and logo in all of the NCAA. Gotta keep it similar and can't have anything soft or whimpy. Tribe
Tribe	Stick with the theme!
Tribe	The definition of a tribe is a group of people, or a community with similar values or interests.
Tribe	The definition of tribe is a large family. This perfectly describes our university.
Tribe	The idea of being a UND Tribe makes it seem even alumni are together with us, so we feel part of the team after graduation.
Tribe	The only opinion that matters is mine so pick it. ;)
Tribe	The Sioux is our original identity. If we cannot have that, maybe something similar will do.
Tribe	The state and region have a strong a history of Indian pride. The history will be known throughout the world or lost if not used
Tribe	The Webster dictionary definition is "large family" a group of people that includes many families.." That is what UND is, a large family.
Tribe	The word still has roots in the Sioux culture of North Dakota without actually referencing the word "Sioux" .
Tribe	the word tribe means a group of people sharing in a common goal or interest, like a family. This is the main goal of UND
Tribe	This at least keeps some of the history of the school in the nickname and it is not offending or discriminating against one specific group
Tribe	This is what another school used after being forced to change their name.
Tribe	This would at least honor the tradition and heritage of Sioux hockey. This is the only acceptable name besides ND or Sioux.
Tribe	UND is a united student front and if we can't be a tribe named after the Sioux then we should still be allowed to show we are united.
Tribe	We all felt a sense of connection to "fighting Sioux" and often hear the students all say we are one tribe.
Tribe	We can keep the history alive of our previous nickname, without being considered racist or offensive, instead promoting unity among students
Tribe	we would be able to keep all the history behind the old name, but it isn't racist towards any group. Just a tribe.
Tribe	Would be a unifying alternative to Sioux
Tribe	Would pay respect to the retired Sioux nickname
Tribe	Would still honor Native Americans without specifically being tied to an individual entity. Also currently used by William & Mary College.
Tribe	You can do this without sounding native. A tribe is a band of people moving together towards 1 goal. We are 1 school, 1 state, 1 team, 1 UND
Tribes	It's embodies all the same awesome traits as Sioux but won't get us in trouble
Tribesmen	let's keep our nickname native
tribute and a honor
Triceratops	Strong, fierce, native to area, we have a skull on campus
Triceratops	The best triceratops fossil ever was found in North Dakota. That deserves more recognition.
Triceratops	The most common of the dinosaurs in North Dakota
Triceratops	Triceratops roamed ND. We have one in Leonard Hall. There aren't any colleges that use a dinosaur for a nickname - so it would be unique.
Triceratops	Unique nickname and we have a triceratop skull on campus. Logo and/or mascot could be very interesting.
Triceratops	We have a triceratop's skeleton in Leonard Hall. Dinosaurs have been found in ND. It could represent our teams and our academic pursuits.
Triple Dick Terrorists	This name just works. Everyone would rally behind such a fierce and intimidating nickname. The logo could be really cool too.
Trojans	It represents a team of courage and strength
Trolleyhoppers	Sounds really cool to say

UND FIGHTING SIOUX FOREVER

UND Fighting Sioux or just UND. NOTHING ELSE WILL EVER WORK.

UND Fits the attributes

UND Great name, nobody else has it.

UND Great unique name meets all attributes.

UND I believe it would be best to not have any nickname change at all. It will be the cheapest, easiest and least painful transition.

UND I believe that the University should remain without a name so that we can keep memories of the old nickname in our hearts.

UND I believe the majority of the tax paying citizens of North Dakota would like UND to play as just UND and not have a new nickname.

UND I believe the UND nickname is recognizable and signifies the traditions of the school.

UND I believe there is no way to replace the tradition. Just UND is the only solution in my opinion

UND I do not believe that we should have a nickname. It would be a disrespect to the school to change to anything else, and does not show pride

UND I don't think there should be another nick name for the next 5-10 years. Sioux will still be shouted and a new nick name won't make it.

UND I feel that we should remain UND with no mascot. I don't feel that students would respond well to a new nickname.

UND I feel that we should remain UND with no mascot. I don't feel that students would respond well to a new nickname.

UND I grew up in Grand Forks, grew up watching the fighting Sioux, graduated from UND, and believe it is way too soon to find a new name, UND!

UND I think after what they have went through and how the majority of the public and the UND fan base feels is they should just remain the UND.

UND I think it would be a great name because the school is Awesome.

UND I think just UND would be the best fit for the school. I also believe the renaming process has been rushed.

UND I think keeping just UND will not change the togetherness UND feels as a community.

UND I think no nickname or mascot is the way to go. We know who we are without one. A new logo would be nice.

UND I think the college needs to leave the name as UND because everyone is still very upset with the name change and do not want a new mascot.

UND I would like to see us go without a nickname & continue to stand behind the University of North Dakota with the interlocking ND as our logo.

UND If it can not be the Fighting Sioux I feel there is no reason to have a next name as there will be nothing with as much honor as the Sioux!

UND If not the Fighting Sioux, please leave the name just UND. Nothing will ever compare and will never represent our love for UND.

UND if not the Fighting Sioux, then keeping UND makes perfect sense

UND If not the Fighting Sioux, then UND works as that is what all teams have gone by since 2012.

UND If option number 1 is not something we can do, we should just be known as UND or University of North Dakota.

UND If they can't be the Fighting Sioux then we don't need a new name nothing can replace the old name stay UND

UND If we can not be the Sioux, why be anything else? / UND is perfect. / A new name will just not be adopted by those who believe in UND.

UND If we can not keep the SIOUX I would rather have no nickname.

UND If we can't be Sioux we should not get a new nickname.

UND If we can't be the Fighting Sioux then no other nickname should be even considered because it diminishes what Fighting Sioux built at UND

UND If we can't be the fighting Sioux then we should have no nickname

UND If we can't be the Fighting Sioux why be anything else.

UND If we cant be the sioux, I think we should just stay away from a nickname and just be called UND. this option suits everyone the best.

UND If we cant have Fighting Sioux we shouldnt have a nickname

UND If we cant have Fighting Sioux we shouldnt have a nickname

UND If we can't have Fighting Sioux, we don't need a new nickname. Leave it as UND!

UND If we can't have Sioux, then leave it as UND.

UND If we can't have The Fighting Sioux, then no other name will ever be good enough and we should remain just UND.

UND If we can't stay the Sioux might as well just keep it North Dakota
UND if were not the Sioux we are und. Simple as that we don't need another nickname. Heritage would be leaving it as und. Why change now.
UND if yo can't have Sioux why replace it with anything?
UND In full, The University of North Dakota. This is self identifying and unique as no other school can claim it, that ANYONE can support.
UND Institutions are branding themselves more and more by their names rather than their mascots
UND It has all the attributes and shouldn't offend anyone
UND It is "rival proof" to prevent them from ruining a new name. During March Madness, the state & the colleges were the focus, not a mascot.
UND It should remain UND or North Dakota because this seems to be the best option to continue the Sioux tradition.
UND It's by far the most popular nickname & would win in a landslide if voted on.
UND Just keep in UND, no new nickname. THANKS
UND just keep it UND forget the nickname
UND Just keep it UND with interlocking UND
UND Just keep it UND with interlocking UND
UND Just keep it University of North Dakota, without a mascot name, we are North Dakota!
UND Just UND - speaks for itself - how can we replace The Fighting Sioux? Any other name will be wimpy!
UND Keep it as UND/North Dakota, but get creative with some logos to generate interest and sell merchandise.
UND Keep it just UND with the ND interlocking letters
UND Keep it simple - the majority would be comfortable with this UND keep it the way it is. North Dakota. Don't take away the legacy that lives on. North Dakota Fighting Sioux Forever!!!
UND Keep it UND, no new nickname
UND KEEP US UND, NOTHING WILL EVER WORK, TERRIBLE IDEA TO TRY AND CHANGE THE FACE OF THIS UNIV WITH SOME STUPID ANIMAL OR LOGO. WE AI
UND Keeping it UND or the University of North Dakota is what should be used as the name. The interlocking ND is Great.
UND Leave it alone
UND Leave it alone, just UND.
UND Leave it alone. Like the looks and simplicity of current logo.
UND Leave the teams as simply UND. Rushing to replace the mascot is a mistake
UND Meets all attributes
UND meets all attributes
UND Meets all attributes
UND Meets all of the attributes!!
UND Nicknames are stupid, stop wasting time and money on this!
UND Nicknames are stupid, we've wasted too much time and money on this, move on!
UND No change is needed. Let's just go be who we are!
UND No mascot necessary
UND No name will ever replace Sioux so don't try.
UND no need for new nickname, UND works very well
UND No new nickname
UND No new nickname, just UND
UND No Nickname needed!
UND No Nickname needed!
UND No nickname needed. Mascots are overrated and unnecessary

UND No nickname or mascot. Don't need nickname or mascot to show UND PRIDEUND
UND No nickname should replace our old Fighting Sioux.
UND No nickname until the Higher board and tribal leaders are removed from office and there is a Valid Vote for Sioux.
UND No nickname will ever stick until several generations have passed.
UND No nickname will hold the sioux legacy.
UND No nickname, just keep it UND as it is now with the interlocking N/D. Bring back Sioux logo every 10 years as a heritage logo.
UND No nickname, just keep it UND as it is now with the interlocking N/D. Bring back Sioux logo every 10 years as a heritage logo.
UND No nickname, just leave it as the University of North Dakota. No matter what the new nickname is, no one will be happy if it isn't the Sioux
UND No nickname, that why no one can claim it is hostile and or abusive and no specialty groups need to be paid royalties for it.
UND No nickname, that why no one can claim it is hostile and or abusive and no specialty groups need to be paid royalties for it.
UND No nickname, this is unique as most schools have a nickname, promotes ND pride, represents and unifies UND as a school.
UND no nickname/mascot are needed. They are unnecessary today
UND No one can make up things about it like Sioux sucks
UND No one wants a new nickname
UND No one will ever move on from the Sioux name.
UND No other name needed
UND No other name Sioux can be replaced
UND No way to replace the tradition. Just UND is the only solution
UND not offensive to anyone
UND Not offensive to anyone
UND Nothing can replace Sioux, if not that,then UND is sufficient.
UND nothing can replace the Sioux name!
UND Nothing else can ever compare or be as strong as the Fighting Sioux name.
UND Nothing else can replace the fighting sioux.
UND Nothing will come close to the Fighting Sioux. Having no nickname is the next best option.
UND ONCE A SIOUX, ALWAYS A SIOUX!
UND Please don't do this to us. The students will never stand for it
UND Please don't make a new nickname and logo. Please Please Please. It's either go back to Fighting Sioux, or no nickname at all.
UND Please, no nickname. The University of North Dakota, is as strong, proud, refreshingly simple and unique as it needs to be.
UND Remain UND, we are north dakota.
UND same as above
UND same as above

UND Same it the best one
UND same reason as above
UND Same reason as above
UND Same reasoning as #1
UND see above
UND See above
UND See above
UND See above statement; look at Cornell .. their sales are strong and they have NO NICKNAME

UND Shortened version, same reason.

UND Shows that we are so proud of our school that no nickname is necessary, people will know us for our university name and not our athletic one

UND Simple and to the point. Would probably be accepted more than a new nickname.

UND Simple, Direct, and highlights the fact we are the flagship higher education institution in the state. make UND Simply "UND" fulfills all attributes the committees have laid out. UND represents who we are and where we live.

UND Since no other nickname will be as great as the Fighting Sioux nickname then keep it UND.

UND Since the Fighting Sioux retired, this is what teams have been known by. I like it.

UND Sioux

UND Sioux cannot be replaced, therefore just proudly remain UND.

UND Sioux forever

UND Sioux is irreplaceable, therefore just UND is acceptable to those of us that are actual alumni of this university.

UND Students and alumni will not buy apparel of a new mascot. Don't waste your time, let us stay UND.

UND that is who we are

UND The brand is well known

UND The Fighting Sioux nickname will not be dead for a long time. UND as it is currently best represents the school, community, and state.

UND The NCAA already broke our hearts by stealing our name, please don't hurt our school any further by making us change from und.

UND The old name just passed on; people are still mourning let UND stay nameless to show we're confident in who we are and don't need a nickname.

UND The school should remain as und.

UND The UND nickname is appealing as it signifies the strength of the university and all activities, and is well-known.

UND The University held the University of North Dakota Fighting Sioux name with honor for many years. It cannot be replaced.

UND The University of North Dakota or UND is the only name everyone can agree on.

UND The usage of just UND has been going on for awhile, is true to its name, is familiar and eliminates any need for changes in attire, etc.

UND there is nothing more unique for a nickname than not having one. North Dakota provides a sense of regional pride and unifies the community

UND There is enough unnecessary hurt already and any other name is not going to be accepted the faithful.

UND There is no other nickname that can replace "THE FIGHTING SIOUX"!!

UND There is no other option.

UND There should not be a replacement for the old one. Leave it as nothing.

UND This seems to be working if we can't have the Sioux name

UND This is the name that would win if you voted today. Don't let a bunch of liberals ruin this!

UND This is the only option & if you put it to a vote right now, you would get 80% approval. That is much higher than anything else will get.

UND This meets all of the attributes!!

UND To stay with the long heritage of the school

UND Too early for a nickname

UND UND is a respected university and the interlocking "ND" is classy. Don't replace a legendary nickname with one that won't be embraced.

UND UND is being used and is working fine. Keeping this name will also be fiscally responsible and allow more funds to be focused on education.

UND UND is current, recognizable, logical, easy to pronounce, & has no chance of offending anyone. Mascot can continue to be flame if needed.

UND UND not just ND as other schools are already referred to as ND

UND UND or North Dakota is perfectly fine on a permanent basis. The left-wing hegemony is appalling. Any new nickname will not be recognized.

UND UND should stay UND with no nickname

UND UND the next best option. With 'UND' we stand firm in our resolve not to be bullied, hoodwinked, or fooled into accepting what we don't want

UND UND will always be known as the Fighting Sioux. No new nickname will change that.

UND UND without adding North Dakota. That makes the nickname too long

UND Unique, recognizable, inspiring and distinctly UND...promotes pride, strength and passion...does not insult anyone!!! /

UND University of North Dakota

UND University of North Dakota

UND University of North Dakota. Stand out without a nickname.

UND University of North Dakota. Nothing will come close to representing ND like the honor and pride of the Sioux name. Better than a dumb animal

UND We are the University of North Dakota and thats why it should be.

UND We are UND

UND We aren't ready for a new nickname. It will be uncomfortable for athletes and fans to be cheering for something they don't believe in.

UND We cannot find a name that represents our state and history; better THAN WHAT WE HAD and as a sign of pride WE WILL CARRY with us Always UND

UND We do not want a new nickname, I'd rather be the Fighting Sioux, or nothing. So much money has been wasted on this pet project.

UND We don,t need a nickname. We should be proud of this University representing North Dakota - no mascot or nickname needed. Go North Dakota!

UND We don't need a different nickname.

UND We don't need a nickname other than the name of our school to depict our pride and passion at this university. No nickname will compare

UND We don't need a nickname. What says University of North Dakota better than University of North Dakota. #nonicknameneeded Thanks!

UND We don't need or want a new nickname. Nothing can replace Fighting Sioux so let's move on as just UND or North Dakota.

UND We should remain the University of North Dakota, no nickname required.

UND We should remain the University of North Dakota, no nickname required.

UND What could be more unique and represent more pride than UND?

UND When you retire a number or jersey in professional atheletics, it is never reused. He had a great nickname that should never be replaced!!!

UND Will not offend anyone...will not be laughed at...will not bend to PC rules...will not represent bending to the force of the NCAA or others!

UND With the honorable nickname "Fighting Sioux" being wrongfully retired, it isn't appropriate to change the name so soon or possibly ever.

UND with the Sioux controversy, nothing will make people happy. I think the logo and name being used this season is as good as any.

UND You can't replace a mascot because NCAA doesn't like it. We are the Sioux and if we can't be then we are UND.

UND Your 25 characters didn't allow me to say THE University of North Dakota. We were the first and only University in the state.

UND Lawyers

UNDdeniables

UNDdefrost The name UNDefrost sounds tough, cold, hardy, fits well with the vision people have of N.Dakotans.

UNDDestroyers The name UNDestroyers brings to mind strength, power, boldness, someone to be feared. / The mascot could be a T.Rex. recognizable to all.

Undies

Undies

Undies as a Gopher's fan I notice you are always taking it in the shorts

Undies Capitalizes on popularity of underwear as sported by Superman, Batman, Wonder Woman, and other superheroes.

Undies Contains the university acronym while expressing humor and light heartedness

Undies its funny

Undies My friend suggested UNDIES with the IES standing for industrious, exceptional scholars. I heartily Endorse this suggestion!

Undies Simplicity is always the cest!

Undies Somewhat comical, not particular to any sex, certainly will promote an attitude of fun and whimsy.

Undies UNDIES, with the IES standing for industrious, exceptional scholars

UNDND We are UND We are North Dakota I understand the need for a mascot. That can be created.

UNDNorth Dakota

UNDDakota	embodies all four points above better than any nickname ever could!
UNDDakota	Fighting Sioux Nickname had all the qualities you are now looking for. It is going to be hard to come up with a substitute as good as Sioux
UNDDakota	I believe a new name won't be able to replace the sense of pride that came along with the Fighting Sioux nickname, current ND looks nice
UNDDakota	I think not having a "nickname" has been working well. There is no controversy with it either.
UNDDakota	identifies who we are
UNDDakota	If not Sioux then stay ND
UNDDakota	If they can't be the Fighting Sioux leave it as UND North Dakota. You will not find a more honorable; distinguished name as Fighting Sioux.
UNDDakota	If we can't be the Sioux, then there isn't anything else of a high enough caliber to represent UND.
UNDDakota	If we can't have Sioux... this is least the offensive choice... / Seriously..wait for Students to come back to vote. They deserve a voice!
UNDDakota	It is a compromise between the two sides of the nickname debate. Anti-Sioux: Not officially known as Sioux/Pro-Sioux: Nothing replaces Sioux
UNDDakota	It is evident at every home hockey game. Sioux will always be our nickname. NC can't change that.
UNDDakota	It meets your criteria and keeps us unique. Anything else will be widely rejected.
UNDDakota	It will always be the Sioux no matter what
UNDDakota	Meets all the attributes and is included in the school song
UNDDakota	No new nickname.Should never have let Sioux go.
UNDDakota	No nickname could ever take place of the Sioux.
UNDDakota	no nickname is needed...if we pick a new one that someone deems offensive we're right back / where we started from. Just UND / North Dakota
UNDDakota	No nickname would allow the university to retire the Fighting Sioux name without 'retiring' or forgetting our history and tradition.
UNDDakota	North Dakota says it all. Strong, proud like the people. Unifies all fans. Respects traditions, but sets a new standard for team identity.
UNDDakota	Neutral/non-offensive. Allows for many logos.
UNDDakota	Only acceptable option other than Sioux.Need to honor alma mater and UND history, means ALOT to alumni and fans! Anything else dishonorable
UNDDakota	Remain just north Dakota. Fighting Sioux can never be replaced.
UNDDakota	Teams nationally are mostly referred to school name anyway. Help with less feelings of loss of identity/alma mater. Proud of State.
UNDDakota	The current name has been well-established over the past 2-3 years. It has been shown to satisfy all desired attributes.
UNDDakota	The Sioux name was a strong tradition in town and in state. I don't think people are going to get behind a new mascot. Just go on as UND/ND.
UNDDakota	There is nothing that would be better, or bring more pride.
UNDDakota	This is who we are. UND has already been naturally adopted, simply, when losing Fighting Sioux, naturally, became University of North Dakota
UNDDakota	This name is embodies all 4 of the suggested attributes and also allows the connection to the Fighting Sioux name to continue.
UNDDakota	UND is a strong enough school to stand just behind its UND name.
UNDDakota	UND is North Dakota Hockey! North Dakota Hockey is UND!
UNDDakota	Unique, recognizable, inspiring, distinctly UND. Promote a sense of pride, strength and passion. Already included in the school song
UNDDakota	We ARE North Dakota...simple..strong..beautiful. Just have to develop and image better than interlocking ND
UNDDakota	You cannot replace the true name. Either fight the NCAA to get back the old, or go with nothing. Nobody will except anything else.
UNDDakota	you have already destroyed the pride and tradition. will avoid future problems by any group who wants to whine that name is offensive.
Unemployed Oilrig Hands	It's high time we pay homage to what has made North Dakota great: those who moved to boomtowns only to be fired when oil dropped to $40/bbl
Unicorns	Alliteration and it's unique
Unicorns	why not??
Uniform November Delta
Union	A state motto is "Liberty and Union, Now and Forever, One and Inseparable"
Union	Goes with state motto, and represents union between natives and immigrants.
United UNiteD	There is an obvious feeling of connection with both the institution and the struggle. Stay United.

Pride in our state and pride in our institution. Unique to just us and shows pride that's who we are
That's who we are!
unique to just us - very recognizable - we are proud of where come from!
If it can't be Fighting Sioux or just Sioux I'd prefer to not adopt a new nickname/logo and just remain The University of North Dakota.
It should stay just as 'University of North Dakota', it has a dominant appreciation & nothing would come close to honoring the school
It's who we are. It represents our school and the State. Logo by contest.
Meets all selection criteria and is the only name that will be unifying for all associated with UND.
No matter the nickname, people are going to hate it because they want Sioux. Just be the University of North Dakota.
North Dakota itself has enough meaning, history, and pride behind it that it is the only name worthy of replacing the Fighting Sioux name.
Please do not turn us from the proud Fighting Sioux to an animal, color or weather event. We are not ready for another name.
Simple, elegant, lasting
We don't want a new nickname.

because any other name but Sioux will not be right. Just be the U of ND
It is: unique, recognizable, inspiring, & distinctly UND's. / Promotes pride, strength, fierceness, & passion; representative of state.
Keep it like it is.....simple, recognizable, classy.
No nickname is better than choosing a name that will never have the tradition, legacy, and honor that the Fighting Sioux name had.
Because if they cannot be the sioux then there shouldn't be a name
I think that if North Dakota is in the name people will know where it is located.
I'd rather be The University of North Dakota than some shitty new nickname. No one wants a new nickname. STAY UND
This is what the university is. No other name will ever replace what we had and I would be personally insulted by another name!
We don't need a nickname. Leave it as it is now.

Because that is who we are. We were the Sioux which was an honorable name but can't use it so this is who we are!
because that is who WE are....plain and simple. No NEW nickname needed.
Don't change it. Leave it at no nome.
Fighting Sioux or nothing
Heritage can remain while compliance is maintained. Also gives the opportunity of the university to easily maintain the Sioux trademark.
i believe that there is no reason to choose a new nickname we have a lot of tradition and let's keep that as UND only

I think it would be great to just be the University of North Dakota with no mascot. We have a great logo as is.
If they can't be the Fighting Sioux then they should just be University of North Dakota. Any other nickname is just going to be worthless.
It seems to have been working just fine the last two years. Let's leave it that way
It's who we are if there is no Fighting Sioux
Just leave it alone.
Keep it simple. / This allows fans to use whatever name they want to use to refer to the team, even though it's not official.
No nickname. Leave as University of North Dakota
Or the Fighting Sioux
Sioux or nothing
That is who we are.
The best name that people can agree on
This recognizes North Dakota. I have no idea where most nicknames come from.
UND by itself has been branded very well as the nickname. No additional naming is needed.
UND Fighting Sioux can NEVER be called by any other name then the Fighting Sioux or University of North Dakota.
UND will always be the Fighting Sioux. The name was gifted to UND and can not be undone.
We are already known as this name, as we are the University of North Dakota. I feel we do not need a new nickname.
Why can't we just no nickname at all? Whatever you choose will pale in comparison to the previous for all the reasons you stated at the top.

You seriously couldn't allow one more character? Are you trying to prevent us from staying as the University of North Dakota. Shocking.

Because no one will accept any nickname other than the Sioux. UND is a well known name in itself. We don't need a mascot to be great.
If we cant be Fighting Sioux or Sioux we should remain just North Dakota. No mascot is needed for marketing purposes and making money.
If we can't be the Fighting Sioux, we should not be anything at this point. We are proud of our old nickname and a new one wouldn't fit.
Mkting can focus on the strength of state & people. Many colleges market their city or state name or initials. anything else feels forced.
The captaincy of the New York Yankees died with Jeter; as should a nickname with the Sioux. The Yankees wont pick a captain why should we.
The pulse of the people connected to the University illustrates no desire for a nickname. Perhaps 5, 10, 20 years people will be receptive.
UND had a strong nickname. Replacing it so soon would upset a good majority of UND supporters
It abbreviates the name and sounds vaguely like a computer name c'mon man... abide
Like Prince, the team formerly known as the fighting sioux

Just as vacuum's only purpose is to suck, so is the mission of und.
Because they suck and are full of crap.
Grand Forks is in a valley, men meaning both male and female, working class people who are passionate about what they beleive in.
We have turned into vandals because our old nickname was taken
