NFL ANNOUNCES MINNESOTA VIKINGS 2020 SCHEDULE

Vikings Face Four 2019 Playoff Teams in First Five Weeks of Regular Season

Eagan, Minn. (May 7, 2020)– The Minnesota Vikings will kick off their 60th NFL season on Sunday, Sept. 13, by hosting the Green Bay Packers at U.S. Bank Stadium in the first season-opening home Border Battle in team history. Minnesota then hits the road in Week 2 to face the Indianapolis Colts before beginning a three-week stretch in which it will play three 2019 playoff participants. The Vikings will first take on the Tennessee Titans (Sept. 27) at home and then travel back-to-back weeks to play the Houston Texans (Oct. 4) and Seattle Seahawks (Oct. 11).

Minnesota returns home in Week 6 to play the Atlanta Falcons before heading into the Bye Week (October 25). It is the earliest bye under Mike Zimmer since the Vikings 2015 season (Week 5).

Following the break, the Vikings have three consecutive matchups against NFC North opponents, culminating in a Monday Night Football game at the Chicago Bears in Week 10. Overall, Minnesota has two primetime games scheduled for 2020. The Week 5 contest at Seattle is slated to air on Sunday Night Football.

In Weeks 11-13, Minnesota hosts the Dallas Cowboys, Carolina Panthers and Jacksonville Jaguars, respectively. The Vikings last had a three-week stretch at home in 2014 and this marks the first such stretch since U.S. Bank Stadium opened.

The Vikings then travel south to take on the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Week 14 prior to returning to Minnesota to close out the 2020 home slate against the Bears in Week 15.

Minnesota rounds out the regular season with two road games, including a Christmas Day matchup against the New Orleans Saints in Week 16. It will be the fourth time in franchise history the Vikings have played on a Friday and the first since Christmas Eve 2004. Minnesota has played on Christmas Day three other times, most recently at Baltimore in 2005.

Earlier this week, the NFL announced a league-wide refund policy for tickets purchased directly from clubs and shared refund policies for single-game tickets purchased through NFL licensed channels (Ticketmaster, SeatGeek and StubHub).
