INFORMATION

A crowd of 9,190 was on hand to see the Pittsburgh Power's first ever franchise win against the Iowa Barnstormers on Saturday, March 19th, 58-28. Bernard Morris took the Power out to a 28-14 lead at halftime before being taken out with a muscle strain in his throwing arm for Kevin McCabe in the second half. Morris was 14/21 with 114 yards passing. Joshua Rue had two of his three touchdowns for Pittsburgh in the first half.

Irv Campbell and Lonnell Dewalt, caught touchdown receptions from Morris. Jerome Mathis and Mike Washington caught touchdowns from McCabe. The Power dominated possession throughout the half, allowing the Barnstormers just four minutes on the ball.

McCabe passed for three touchdown in relief of Morris. He finished 10/14 on the night with 110 yards and three touchdowns. Pittsburgh outscored Iowa 30-14 in the second half.

With the win, Pittsburgh moves to 1-1 on the season.

ABOUT THE ARENA

The construction team broke ground on August 14, 2008 for the new arena. In 2008, CONSOL Energy, an energy company headquartered in nearby Canonsburg, Pennsylvania, acquired a 21-year naming rights deal for the building. CONSOL Energy is the largest producer of high-BTU bituminous coal in the United States. Two years and $321 million in construction costs later, CONSOL Energy Center held its Grand Opening Celebration on August 18 and 19, 2010 with two sold out concerts with Sir Paul McCartney.

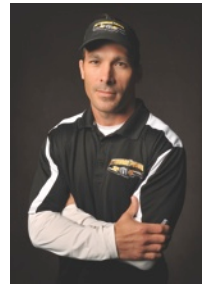

CONSOL Energy Center is the only LEED gold certified sports facility in North America. LEED stands for Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design, which is a program set up by the US Green Building Council. LEED is a nationally accepted standard system that promotes sustainable building practices and recognizes projects that achieve better environmental and health performance.

In February, 2011 CONSOL Energy Center was named the nation's Best New Major Concert Venue for 2010 at the 22nd annual POLLSTAR Concert Industry Awards in Los Angeles.

Bon Jovi's February 11 and 12 sold out concerts at CONSOL Energy Center marked the top two attended indoor concert events ever in Pittsburgh. The Friday, February 11 crowd of 18,571 for Bon Jovi also was the highest attended indoor event in Pittsburgh history, breaking the previous record of 18,322 for the Penguins/Atlanta Thrashers game on December 28, 2010. On Saturday, February 12, Bon Jovi drew a crowd of 18,240. The previous indoor concert attendance record was 17,764 for the Jimmy Page/Robert Plant show on March 25, 1995 at the Civic Arena.

CONSOL Energy Center offers great unobstructed views throughout the entire building. The last row of seats is only 88 feet from the floor, as was the last row in F Balcony at the Civic Arena. The seating capacity for Arena Football is 16,280, Hockey is 18,087, Basketball is 18,500 and varies event-to-event for concerts, family shows and other sporting events.

POWER LEADERS

Chris Siegfried brings 10 years of Arena Football Coaching experience to the Pittsburgh Power. As a head coach, most recently from 2007-2009 with the Arkansas Twisters of The af2 League, Chris has compiled a 79-40 win-loss record and received the honor of af2 Coach of the Year while leading the Spokane Shock to the ArenaCup championship. Additionally, he coached the only expansion team to play in the ArenaCup in af2 League history.

Chris honed his coaching style as an offensive coordinator, helping his teams compile a 32-19 win-loss record. Chris has coached one af2 Rookie of the Year, an af2 Lineman of the Year, 2 af2 Offensive Players of the Year, and an af2 Playmaker of the Year.

Coach Siegfried was the Offensive Coordinator for the expansion Jacksonville Sharks in 2010, a team that went 12-4 in the regular season and earned the top seed in the American Conference playoffs. He joined the Sharks following a stint as head coach of arenafootball2's Arkansas Twisters. Siegfried was the second most "winningest" coach in the league's ten-year history. Prior to his arrival in Little Rock, he spent the 2007 season as the offensive coordinator for the AFL's Kansas City Brigade. In 2006 with the Spokane Shock, he guided the expansion club to the ArenaCup Championship and was honored as the af2 Coach of the Year. As the first af2 player to be named a head coach in the league, Chris tasted coaching success immediately when named the head coach of Cape Fear before the 2002 season. Finishing 38-16 over three years, Siegfried led the franchise to three playoff appearances and two division titles.

Siegfried played college football at Division II Millersville University (PA) and earned a degree in business administration. He was a three-year starter and led the team in kick-off return average. The West Hazleton High graduate has also appeared on television and in movies. He was a contender on the show "American Gladiators Orlando Live" and appeared in "The Waterboy" as a stuntman performing football related stunts and "Radio" as an assistant football coach. Siegfried is married to wife Tammi and the couple has two children; Kody and Baylee.
