

Giving Locally:
Shop for Unique, Locally Made Gifts that Give Back

the Art Market - a project of Milestone (<http://milestonecentersinc.org>)

The Art Market features handmade craft products and customized t-shirts made by artists with disabilities. Their physical and online store allows you to purchase low-cost gifts with a large-scale impact! Proceeds from each purchase go towards paying the artists who made the products and to give some individuals a retail work-training opportunity in the shop.

Flight 93 Memorial (<http://www.honorflight93.org>)

For the heros in our lives! Remembering and Honoring the lives of ordinary citizens whose extraordinary actions made a lasting impact on our nation and transformed them into heros who will never be forgotten.

An Uncommon Field by Richard Snodgrass (a beautiful book of photographs and prose of the temporary memorial created by those who visited the crash site)

<http://www.rsnodgrass.com>

Proceeds from the book and an exclusive collection of 10 framed photographs and accompanying prose support the Flight 93 memorial.

Book and exclusive photo collection available from The Sewickley Gallery and Frame Shop
