Sally Rifugiato, Principal

May 4, 2016

Dear Pittsburgh Beechwood Families,

You are receiving this communication to notify you of an investigation at Pittsburgh Beechwood regarding an allegation of inappropriate use of school technology. The District has placed a Beechwood teacher that may be involved on administrative leave pending the completion of an investigation. No determination or direct evidence of misconduct has been established at this time.

Please be assured that all of us at Pittsburgh Beechwood put the safety of our students first. We will continue to work to provide a safe and orderly environment where all students have the best possible opportunity to succeed. Since this matter is under investigation, we have no additional information to share at this time.

Since Ms. Rifugiato is out of the building until next Monday, please contact the main office in her absence and I will respond to your call directly.

Sincerely,

Kevin Bivins, Assistant Superintendent
