Mediation Order

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105, the Court concludes that it is necessary and appropriate to order the parties to engage in the facilitative mediation of any matters that the Court refers in this case. Accordingly, it is ordered:

1. After consultation with the parties involved, the Court may order the parties to engage in any mediation that the Court refers in this case.
2. With his consent, Chief District Judge Gerald Rosen, United States District Court, Eastern District of Michigan, is appointed to serve as judicial mediator in this case for purposes of facilitative mediation. The judicial mediator is authorized to enter any order necessary for the facilitation of mediation proceedings.
3. Chief Judge Rosen may, in his discretion, direct the parties to engage in facilitative mediation on substantive, process and discovery issues, as referred by Judge Rhodes, with such other mediators, judicial or non-judicial, as Chief Judge Rosen may designate. The fees and expenses of any non-judicial mediators shall be shared by the parties as directed by Chief Judge Rosen.
4. All proceedings, discussions, negotiation, and writings incident to mediation shall be privileged and confidential, and shall not be disclosed, filed or placed in evidence.

6. If a motion for approval of the settlement under F.R.Bankr.P. 9019 is necessary, the parties shall file it within 14 days after the agreement is fully executed.
7. For each mediation session, the judicial mediator shall have the authority to establish the mediation process, including the submission of documents, the attendance of parties with authority to settle, the procedure governing the mediation, and the schedule for the mediation.
