Letter of explanation

On May 2001, I got in a fight with a fellow student in my math class at Martin County High School. After the fight occurred, the school resource officer released me to my parents. I did not get handcuffed and did not go to jail. The charge of battery was adjudicated and the charge of disturbing school function was dropped. It has been five years since the fight occurred and I have not gotten in any altercations ending up in physical contact. This was an experience of me growing up and I learned a big lesson from it. I was 14 years old when this fight occurred.
