STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

In the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Seventeen

AN ACT establishing a bipartisan commission to evaluate New Hampshire's response to Russian interference in our democracy.

Be it Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

1 1 Findings. The general court finds that:

2 I. In his 1809 letter to veterans gathered in Bennington, and signed with the revered words
3 "Live Free or Die; Death is Not the Worst of Evils", General John Stark stated: "As I was then, I am
4 now—the friend of the equal rights of men, of representative democracy, of republicanism and the
5 Declaration of Independence, the great charter of our national rights; and of course the friend of the 6 indissoluble union and Constitution of the states. I am the enemy of all foreign influence, for all
7 foreign influence is the influence of tyranny."

8 II. Foreign interference in our elections only undermines our constitutional democracy, our 9 electoral process, and our independence and sovereignty.

10 III. It is the uncontested conclusion within the intelligence community of the United States
11 of America that Russia interfered in the 2016 election.

12 IV. Free and fair elections are the cornerstone of our democracy, both in the United States
13 and here in New Hampshire, including our first-in-the-nation primary.

14 V. It is more than reasonable for New Hampshire to establish a bipartisan commission to at 15 least evaluate whether and how to respond to Russian interference in our democracy.

16 2 New Subdivision; Bipartisan Commission to Evaluate New Hampshire's Response to Russian
17 Interference in our Democracy. Amend RSA 176 by inserting after section 19 the following new
